

German-Bulgar Forces Are Crushing Serbia; Russians Claiming Success Over The Teutons

GERMAN BULGAR FORCES GAINING

Berlin, Oct. 23. (By Wireless to Sayville).—German troops have crossed the Drina river in North-western Serbia near Visegrad, driving southward the Serbians on the heights, according to the official statement issued today by German army headquarters. It is also announced that Bulgarian troops have captured the Serbian town of Negotin and Rogyvevo.

Bulgarians Progressing

Amsterdam, Oct. 23. (Via London).—The Bulgarian invasion of Serbia has made further progress, according to an official statement from Sofia received today, although the advance is being delayed by bad weather. The statement follows:

"In the valley of Timok our troops reached the right bank of the river.

"In Macedonia the enemy is being pursued further. On account (Continued On Page Eight)

KNOX'S SHOP GIRL BRIDE DISMANTLES PHILADELPHIA HOME

Mrs. Philander C. Knox, Jr.

Indications that Philander C. Knox, Sr., former secretary of state, has never completely forgiven Philander C. Knox, Jr., for his marriage to a Providence, R. I., shop girl is seen in the dismantling of the home of Mrs. Knox, Jr., in Philadelphia. It is understood that the home was dismantled and the furnishings sold to meet the demands of creditors. The former secretary of state is said to have denied his son financial aid.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 23. Railroads here today arranged to move some four thousand Italian reservists from West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania, who have been ordered to join their regiments.

TEUTON DRIVE ON RIGA IS CHECKED

London, Oct. 23.—The latest official news from Petrograd gives some indication that Field Marshal von Hindenburg's drive toward the Baltic Port of Riga has again been checked and that, nearer the center of the German line, German counter attacks have been repulsed. Fighting in the left bank of the Styr continues, and the Russians assert they have made further captures of large numbers of men. In the caucuses lively actions in which cavalry is taking an important part, are reported.

Vienna acknowledges Austrian troops have retired in Galicia under the pressure of superior Russian forces.

The status of political affairs in the Balkans is almost equal in interest to the military situation. The belief is growing here that neither Greece nor Rumania is likely to enter the war; at least unless the entente allies gain some decisive success. Greece apparently regards this as more important than the offer of the island of Cyprus, and it is feared in Athens that the allied troops have (Continued on Page Eight)

REMAINS ON THE JOB

Columbus, Oct. 23.—Byron M. Glendening of Cincinnati today was sitting on his job as Democratic member of the State Liquor Licensing Board in disregard to Governor Willis' action yesterday in dismissing him after sustaining charges of official misconduct at the end of a two days' hearing of the charges.

Governor Willis officially had no word but that Mr. Glendening had vacated his office, and it was said at the governor's office no action to oust him would be taken until the middle of next week. Counsel for Mr. Glendening today began preparing to carry the case to the supreme court. It was said that the appeal petition probably would not be filed before the latter part of next week.

GOVERNMENT TO CONTROL FOOD PRICES

Berlin, Oct. 23.—(Wireless to Sayville).—The federal government today decided to assume control of the price and supply of victuals throughout Germany. Up to the present time the state provincial authorities has proved competent to handle the food situation.

The German government now considers it necessary, the Overseas News Agency says, to equalize the position of the various sections of the empire as to the distribution and the price of victuals, which are abundant but under different conditions in the various states and provinces of Germany.

SALOON LICENSES

Columbus, Oct. 23.—Franklin county liquor licensing commissioners today announced the granting of 351 licenses to saloonists in this county, sixteen renewal applications were rejected, and seven licenses granted to original applicants.

But eleven saloons were put out of business because the board does not deem them lawfully conducted.

Cincinnati, Oct. 23.—The Hamilton county liquor license commissioners today announced that 936 licenses had been issued to different individuals in Hamilton county, 816 of which go to Cincinnati. This is an increase in this city of eight over last year.

There were no refusals in the licenses for wholesalers but two less than last year were asked for.

Cleveland, Oct. 23.—The Cuyahoga county liquor license commission today made public its license list for 1916. All present holders of licenses, with three exceptions, are granted renewals.

In these three cases rejection is not final, the cases being held up for further investigation by the board.

Thirty-four new licenses are granted.

SPANISH QUEEN AND ELDEST DAUGHTER

POLICE OUTWIT MOB

Bluefield, W. Va., Oct. 23.

—An attempt to lynch Geo. Roten, a negro accused of the murder of Edgar L. Holmes, Jr., a white man, failed here today when the police hurried Roten through a back door of the county jail and started him for Princeton.

The mob, angered at Roten's escape, notified the people of Princeton and a crowd soon gathered at the jail there. Again the police got their man out of the jail and started over the hills to Charleston.

Holmes was on his way home last night with a party of companions when they became involved in a fight with a number of negroes. Stones were thrown, and when one of them struck Roten's house he ran into the street, and it is charged, fired into the crowd of white men.

Holmes died an hour later in a hospital.

Major George M. Ford, of the West Virginia National Guard, under orders from the office of Governor Hatfield, went to Hinton today and took charge of George Roten, the Bluefield negro who narrowly escaped lynching. Roten was brought to jail here this afternoon and will be held until the authorities think it is safe to return him to Mercer county for trial.

OPTIONAL WITH COMMISSIONERS

Columbus, Oct. 23.—County commissioners are free to pay or refuse to pay a claim for treatment for rabies, Attorney General Turner declared today in an opinion to Prosecutor John H. Markley of Georgetown, Brown county.

In an opinion to Frank W. Miller, superintendent of instruction the attorney general held that a teacher may not work for a book company between the time he or she accepts a position to teach and the time he or she actually starts teaching.

ORDER INVESTIGATION

Washington, Oct. 23.—The Federal Trade Commission today ordered an investigation of charges that combinations of cotton buyers exist in North and South Carolina and Georgia to depress the price of cotton.

Gen. Carranza Sends U. S. Favorable Note

Turks Are Repulsed

Washington, Oct. 23.—General Carranza, through his representative here, Elzo Arredondo, addressed a note today to the United States and the other American republics, which have recognized his government expressing his appreciation of their action and announcing that diplomatic representatives soon would be accredited to the various countries.

General Carranza declared it was the purpose of his government to establish cordial relations with all countries. State department officials today admitted hearing a rumor from Juarez attributed to Villa officials that Felix Diaz and 40,000 Zapata troops were menacing Mexico City.

WANT EIGHT HOUR DAY

Hamilton, O., Oct. 23.—The vote taken by the machinists last night was announced today as favoring the presentation of a demand upon the manufacturers of Hamilton for an eight hour day with no reduction of prices. The demand will now be formulated and, formally presented with a reasonable time given the manufacturers to consider the demand. Should this demand be refused it is very probable according to union leaders that a general strike of machinists to enforce the demand will be called.

ITALIANS THROW BOTH THEIR NAVAL AND LAND FORCES INTO FIGHTING

Udine, Italy, Oct. 23.—(Via Paris).—The Italian army is making a general attack along the whole line from Switzerland to the Adriatic. It is estimated here that the Italians have taken 25,000 prisoners during the war and have put out of action upward of 100,000 men in all. Italian losses, including killed, wounded and prisoners amount to about 45,000, according to official figures which is the lowest percentage of any of the belligerent nations.

Rome, Oct. 23.—(Via Paris, Oct. 23).—The following official statement received from main headquarters of the Italian army under date of October 22, was given out here tonight by the Italian war office:

"Our offensive, happily begun along the Tyrol-Trentino frontier, is developing and extends along the whole front to the sea. In the Ghera valley, where the capture of Monte Melino secured for us a large amount of war material, we have occupied Monte dei Pini and Monte Tisno Inferiore.

In Val Lagarina the enemy, supported by batteries on Monte Bianco attempted on the evening of the 20th a counter attack on our new position on Monte Cressano. He was repulsed and pursued with heavy losses.

At the head of the Breno, our troops have advanced at the same time along the heights of the range of Monte Cristallo, reaching the highest crest of Rancchhofel, and by the plain which extends towards Schladbach, taking enemy trenches and making some prisoners.

In the Fella valley raids by our detachments inflicted serious damage on the enemy defenses and enabled us to take arms and munitions. Rancchhofel has been burned to the ground. In the valley of Seisera our troops of the enemy have been attacked, defeated and routed, capturing many dead.

Along the Isongo, from Caravaggio to the sea, after an intense preliminary preparation, our troops on the morning of the 21st, began an attack on the enemy positions which were strongly held. Under a cloud and concentrated artillery, our army dashed forward constantly, taking at the point of the bayonet the most positions. First, in the Monte Nero zone, the very strongly

BODY FOUND ALONG TRACKS

Delaware, Ohio, Oct. 23.—The body of Harry Slimbaugh, 35, of Defiance, was found on the Pennsylvania railroad tracks here today in a badly mangled condition. Slimbaugh had been at Plain City attending a Corn Carnival. Just how he met his death is unknown.

NEED MORE MISSIONS

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 23.—Great need for missions and missionaries as a result of the European war and a defense of Japan's diplomatic attitude toward China, were discussed today by speakers at the National Laymen's missionary convention here.

It is easier now to add millions of converts than it was to secure hundreds at the beginning of the modern missionary era.

C. J. Campbell White, of Wooster, Ohio, spoke on "Missions in the Light of the War."

Serbian Review Of Bulgarian Campaign

Nish, Wednesday, Oct. 20.—(Via Paris, Oct. 23).—Delayed in Transmission.—The following Serbian official statement was given out here today:

"The Bulgarians commenced hostilities without a previous declaration of war on October 11. The same day in the morning, they attacked our positions at Kikla and Koritmea, penetrating a kilometre into our territory.

On the 11th they attacked our position at Wanode Layade and were repulsed. They attacked and took a position at Pisant Boukka, which we retook in the course of the night and they tried attacks without result on some of our positions near the passage of Kadi Dughaz.

"On the 13th at one o'clock in the morning attacks supported by artillery were pronounced along the whole frontier. The attacks continued on the 14th, and in the direction of Kadi Dughaz the Bulgarians penetrated four kilometres into our territory. From Zleno Bardo enemy artillery attacked two trains on the railway from Pralovo to Zaetchar.

"The Bulgarian government declared war only after having succeeded in occupying by surprise the following points along the frontier: Egnagevatz, Krva Planka, Goleche, Orivat, Kanen, Bosovik, Deteluni, Gladontz, Tarni, Vrhovina, Gaiva, Devebar and Bogadartza.

"On the 15th of October the Bulgarians powerfully assaulted our positions east and southeast of Zaetchar. Three attacks were repulsed.

"On the 16th there was nothing to report on the eastern front. On the northern front on the 17th the fighting in the direction of the Morava on the line Malakina-Osiponco-Popitza fighting continued.

"In the fronts during the 18th nothing of importance occurred. On the 19th we retook Grafichka Teluka west of Charbanova.

"Enemy attacks are in progress at Reglivo, south of Nonifin and near Kralivo Seia. South of Vlassina and Blato fierce fighting is going on."

Athens, Oct. 22 via Paris, Oct. 23.—The foreign office denies both the reported Serbo-Bulgarian understanding and the existence of pourparlers for such an understanding. The Nea Hellas, an opposition organization, notwithstanding this denial, insists that negotiations are proceeding.

Athens, Oct. 22.—(Via Paris 23).—The Serbian minister to Greece announces that the German operations in the north of his country have been temporarily suspended. The Serbians are said to have assumed the offensive and at certain points have forced back the invaders. The German outposts, he

XMAS DINNER IN TURKEY--NOT SO SAY THE SERBIANS

Budapest, (Via London) Oct. 23.—The military experts on the newspapers here state that not more than six months will be required to establish communications with the Turkish army. The Pest-Napole, however, says:

"The German Emperor will spend Christmas in Constantinople at the head of his victorious troops."

The Pest-Napole says in this connection:

"The stroke through the Balkans will bring peace nearer, for it is a stroke aimed directly at England, which heretofore has stood safe and isolated, boasting of her ability to continue the war three years or more.

Athens, Oct. 22.—(Via Paris 23).—The Serbian minister to Greece announces that the German operations in the north of his country have been temporarily suspended. The Serbians are said to have assumed the offensive and at certain points have forced back the invaders. The German outposts, he states, extend only a few kilometres along the line south of Belgrade. French and British military attaches arriving from Nish say that Vrnja was not occupied by the Bulgarians, who simply made a cavalry raid there and were driven off. They further declare that the Serbians have entered Bulgarian territories.

BUREAU OF CENSUS GIVES THE CITY 28,126 POPULATION

Increase Of 4,645 Is Shown Over 1910; Other Cities Given

According to figures compiled by the Bureau of Census of Washington given out officially Saturday, Portsmouth now has a population of 28,126, a gain of 4,645 since 1910, when it was announced that Portsmouth had a population of 23,481.

The estimates given out at Washington today are for the year 1915, the half-way period between decennial counts.

Ironton's latest census figures are 32,810; Chillicothe, 15,315; Cincinnati, 406,706, an increase of 45,115 in the Queen City's population; Lancaster, 15,255; Marietta, 14,309; given.

Middletown, 15,226; Cleveland, 96,312; Dayton, and Toledo, 115,000.

The bureau's estimates are just what they are represented to be—estimates, and nothing more. The method is arithmetical and results are based on the ratio of annual increase between the last two decennial censuses.

Ashland's latest population estimate is 9,653; Charleston, 23,323; Huntington, 42,572; Parkersburg, 20,195; Wheeling, 43,097. Only population of towns over 9,000 in Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky are given.

City's Oldest Resident, Giles Gilbert Sr., Views New Bridge

Giles Gilbert, Sr., who is Portsmouth's oldest resident and second oldest citizen, being but one year younger than S. R. Ross, got his first view of the new county bridge Saturday and was loud in his praises of the fine big structure.

Mr. Gilbert, who on November 8th will reach his 96th milestone in life, walked the entire distance from his home on Sixth street to the Point and back. Enroute he stopped to talk with many persons, delighting in telling what businesses and firms occupied present store rooms on Front street in the good old past.

He said there is not a single person living here today who was in Portsmouth when he came to the city in 1830 from Marietta to locate. A few years later he and his brother, the late M. B. Gilbert, engaged in the grocery business.

NEITHER GOAL LINE IS CROSSED IN FIRST HALF

About 250 spectators were present at the football game between Portsmouth High and Jackson High at Millbrook Park this afternoon, which stood 0 to 0 at the end of the first half.

Drilliant end runs and line plunges by Fullback Evans and Quarterback Jones of Jackson featured the first half, during which the ball was in Portsmouth territory the greater part of the time. The Jackson back field also worked the forward pass with telling effect. Features of the play from Portsmouth's standpoint were the line plunges of Fullback Wilson and the punting of Quinn.

Officials are Wallace Drew, referee, B. K. Scott, umpire, James Lynn, head linesman and Robert Padan, timekeeper.

SAYS THAT PROHIBITION IS AMERICA'S FARCE COMEDY

A whirlwind automobile tour of the west side of the county will be made Monday by Dr. Brose Horn, of Gas City, Indiana, who will deliver eight speeches against state-wide prohibition. His schedule is as follows: 8:30 a. m., Lanesville; 10:00, Sedan; 11:00, Mt. Joy; 12 (noon), Rarden; 2:30 p. m., Lombardsville; 4:30, McDermott; 6:00, Pond Run; 7:30, Buena Vista.

Dr. Horn's subject will be, "America's Farce Comedy." He is the special agent of the National Association of Drug Clerks, the psychologist for the Central Howard Association, and a writer, lecturer, and author of note.

INCREASE SHOWN AT POSTOFFICE

During the first fifteen days of this month local postoffice employees handled 10,643 parcel post packages on the incoming and outgoing mail, according to Wesley Griver, superintendent of mails. The incoming packages numbered 6,102 and the outgoing 4,541, the combined weight of all packages being 33,305 pounds and 10 ounces.

An increase of 37 per cent was shown on incoming packages and an increase of 8 per cent on outgoing packages. These figures are furnished to postal authorities in Washington.

England In Her Darkest Moment Appeals For Men

London, Oct. 23.—The appeal issued yesterday by King George to aid the Earl of Derby's recruiting campaign as a final effort to obtain the required men for military service without recourse to conscription, is framed in tone bringing home the extreme gravity of its military position, and the frankness of the appeal in this respect is emphasized in the editorial columns of the newspapers today.

The Telegraph says that the king's words are charged with "dignity and earnestness of lofty purpose. Let there be no illusions: the present moment is the darkest moment since the war began."

The Times in an editorial on what it calls "the king's stern, stirring appeal," says it is estimated that between 5,000 and 35,000 men per week are required and demands that the government would put an end to this uncertainty by definitely prescribing some test number, whereby to aid the Earl of Derby's recruiting campaign as a final effort to obtain the required men for military service without recourse to conscription, is framed in tone bringing home the extreme gravity of its military position, and the frankness of the appeal in this respect is emphasized in the editorial columns of the newspapers today.

Imitation Good and Bad.
The instinct to imitate is, like most other instincts, highly serviceable, but it has to be kept under control. Before we yield to it we ought to be sure that what we imitate is good. One of the most pitiful things in the world is to see people imitating what is unworthy under the impression that such imitation seems creditable.

I suffered with catarrh for seven years, catarrh of the head, nose and throat, and stomach. Peruna cured me. I followed your advice and I used three bottles of Peruna in three weeks and now my trouble is all gone. I will never be without Peruna in my house. I can heartily recommend Peruna as a catarrh remedy. I am pleased to make public the good that Peruna has done me.

In a later letter Mr. Bazel writes: "I will never be without Peruna in my house. We use it whenever any of the family have a slight cold, and find it a constant service. Peruna has many times saved one of my little boys from serious sickness."

Mr. Samuel Bazel, No. 42 Chestnut Ave., Vineland, N. J., writes: "I want to thank you for your advice and for what your medicine has done for me. I can now procure Peruna Tablets."

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Davis of Indianapolis formerly of this place have sent word to local friends and relatives of the arrival of a baby boy at their home Thursday.

Mrs. George Hunsell of Chillicothe is visiting relatives in Portsmouth and this village.

Mrs. James Harley and Mrs. Joseph Richardson spent Friday at the Will Tatman home at McDermott. They returned in the Tatman machine.

VILLAGE COUNCIL

Council met in adjourned session Friday evening with all members present. A schedule of bills amounting to $117.15 was allowed. Contractors Watkins and Phillips were allowed their final estimate of $77.45 for installing mains in Peedles addition. They were allowed their final estimate on the contract of $787.32 for installing mains in the village proper. They were also paid $345.15 for installing mains in Glenwood addition. The Standard Supply company was paid an estimate of $1000 for furnishing water system material. Benson and Sheppard were paid $56 for hauling material.

Applications for custodian of the fire truck were as follows: Will Tamme, $65 per month; O. E. Burcham, $75; Frank White, $40. A motion was made naming Frank White as caretaker of the machine. The committee on fire, marshal and water was instructed to make necessary repairs to the old mayor's office to put it in shape to house the truck and sleeping quarters for the caretaker.

Clerk Thomas O'Neal read a letter from E. F. McCampbell, secretary and executive officer of the state board of health. The letter was accepted and ordered filed. The sewer system plans for Idlewild and Lakeside did not meet with the approval of the state board and the village is ordered to change the plans to make them conform with the sewer plans in the main part of the village lake.

The street committee was instructed to have signs erected at different places along the streets entering the village warning autoists not to speed.

SCHOOL BOARD
Thomas York, Frank Taylor, John Bell and John Noel were present at the regular meeting Friday evening.

A schedule of bills, including the teachers' and janitors' and transient officer's pay roll was allowed.

The Tritschler company completed the electric wiring system in the new addition to Stanton avenue school Thursday and were paid their final estimate.

The building committee reported that flag poles for Stanton avenue and Oak street buildings are being made by Simpson Bros. of Portsmouth and would be ready next week.

Contractor C. E. Nourse's final estimate was held up until a final inspection of the building is made. The $4,000 sewer improvement

TERMINALS

The N. & W. is to build a steel viaduct in connection with the proposed union station that is to be built at Winston-Salem, N. C. The station is to be used by the N. & W. and Southern railroads and is estimated to cost $300,000.

E. C. Tucker, N. & W. general yardmaster is enjoying his fifteen days vacation. Francis Yates, assistant yardmaster is filling Mr. Tucker's place.

N. & W. extra freight 1058-1090 in charge of P. W. Hasselmann, conductor, W. Leneave and W. E. Bertram, engineers, coupled onto a yard engine near Ironton, Friday afternoon. A heavy fog prevented the engineers from seeing the signals.

Mrs. S. R. Dovel, of Abington, W. Va., who has been at the Harrison Vencer home on Gallia street for a month, is seriously ill. No improvement has been noticed in her condition in the past week.

The Norfolk and Western is in the market for 1000 90-ton gondola cars.

N. & W. Special Officers Andy Leslie and Bob Reno are having their troubles in keeping trespassers off freight trains. The train riders turn the angle cocks and apply the brakes to slow down the trains so they can get off.

Reynolds Hensley, 23, a well known young man of Catlettsburg, Ky., was killed by an N. & W. train between Kernit and Nantua, W. Va., Thursday night about nine o'clock.

Lawrence Wiles, Charles Bolen and Carl Picklesimer who were walking the track found Hensley. A west bound freight train passed a short time before the body was found and it is thought Hensley fell from the train. His brother arrived Friday and took the body to Catlettsburg for burial.

Regular services will be conducted Sunday at the tabernacle by Rev. O. L. King and wife. Mrs. King requests the presence of all the Terminal children to attend the Sunday School at 2 o'clock. Rev. King will preach at 3 o'clock immediately following the Sunday School and at 7 o'clock in the evening. A most cordial invitation is extended to all the people of the Terminals to attend these services. Cottage meetings will be conducted next week as follows: Monday, Mrs. Lila Johnson, Rescue Home, 1916 Sixth street; Tuesday, Mrs. Tipton, 2222 Vinson avenue, on the hilltop; Wednesday, Mrs. Higgins, 3038 Gallia street. Terminals: Friday, Ernest Eain, 2952 Walnut street, Terminals.

H. T. Reinicker, N. & W. assistant Santa division superintendent, spent Friday in Cincinnati on business.

Thos. O'Keefe, N. & W. freight house clerk, and wife will spend Sunday in Cincinnati.

Mrs. H. T. Everett, wife of a well known N. & W. engineer, left Saturday for Columbus to visit relatives.

TEACHERS FORM CLASS

Nineteen of twenty-one rural school teachers who expect to join the class is expected to have a membership of 25. Miss Bartlett will teach the class every Friday evening, at eight o'clock. Rural Society was the course chosen by the teachers.

SOCIETY

Miss Mary Hook's Bible class met in business session Friday evening at the home of Mrs. William Starks, of Eleventh street. A short program as rendered, followed by refreshments. The committee in charge were Mrs. Will Starks, Mrs. Lucy Schleifer, Mrs. David Scott, Mrs. Jacob Werner. Next month's meeting will be announced later.

Mrs. Mary Weakley, of Sixth street, is visiting at the home of her son, Mr. Charles B. Weakley, in Columbus.

Mrs. Russell Anderson and baby arrived home last evening, after a several weeks' visit with her parents in Fremont.

Mrs. John A. Oakes is at home from a week's visit with her daughters in Peedles.

The All Saints' Women's Auxiliary will hold the regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon, October 28th, at the home of Mrs. Emily Wilhelm, on Second street.

Miss Audrey Nourse arrived last evening from the O. W. U. Delawares, to spend the weekend with her parents.

Mrs. Arthur A. Oakes and son, Robert, who are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. McWhirt, in Columbus, will be joined here Sunday by Mr. Oakes, who will be accompanied home by his family.

Bonds issued by council were rejected. The building committee was ordered to have city water service installed in the schools.

Sunday, October 31, was the date set for the dedication of Stanton avenue building. On this day the Jr. O. U. A. M. will present two large American flags to the schools.

An appropriate program will be arranged by the New Boston Jr. O. U. A. M., who are trying to get several out of town speakers to deliver talks at the dedication. The entire school board will work as a committee in conjunction with the Jr. O. U. A. M. to help arrange the program. Dr. W. G. Cheney will give an interesting talk on his trip to the Panama exposition.

John Harcha, deputy county clerk, went to his old home in Buena Vista Saturday afternoon to remain over Sunday.

Judge A. Z. Blair and sons, Guy, George and Edgar, motored to West Union Saturday morning to remain over Sunday. Miss Loh Gifford accompanied them as far as Rome.

Mrs. Oscar Reeg and son, Robert, of Eleventh street, left Saturday for Ashland to spend Sunday with her husband, who is in charge of the Lyric theatre in Ashland for J. E. Potts, of the Arcadia theatre.

Harold Welch, an Ohio State University student, arrived home Saturday to spend the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Welch, of Sixth street. He is a graduate of the P. H. S. and was an interested fan at the P. H. S. Jackson football game Saturday.

Miss Sietie Rausch, clerk in the office of the county treasurer, went to Cincinnati Saturday morning on a short visit.

Mrs. M. J. Hammer, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kemmerer and other relatives, left this morning for her home in St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Edward Bigelow (Florence Crawford) arrived yesterday from Buffalo, N. Y., to visit her mother, Mrs. George Crawford, on Second street.

Mr. E. C. Bradford's mother, Mrs. H. M. Bradford, left today for her home in Hinkley, Ill.

Mrs. Lou Easterday and son, John, will leave Monday for their new home in Cincinnati, where her son will enter the School of Pharmacy. Mrs. Easterday has many friends who regret her leaving this city.

Duffy's Relieved Insomnia and Indigestion

Indigestion and Insomnia are two distressing complaints, which are hard to conquer with drugs. But here is a case where Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, a true product of nature, came to the relief of Mrs. Amelia Lang, again proving the benefit this great "Medicine for All Mankind" really is to suffering humanity.

"After being troubled with sleeplessness and indigestion for some time, and not being able to obtain any relief I read one of your advertisements of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and decided to try it. I must say that my indigestion has disappeared and Duffy's is the only thing that overcame sleeplessness. I will always keep a bottle of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey on hand as I feel it to be a household remedy."—Mrs. Amelia Lang, New York Ave., 63rd St., Jamaica Court, L. I., N. Y.

Being an absolutely pure distillation of thoroughly malted grain, prompts the stomach to healthy action, promotes digestion and assimilation of the food, enriches the blood, and brings strength and vigor to the system. With its prescribed advice of a tablespoonful in water before meals and upon retiring, fatigue is diminished, the nerves are soothed to the point of allowing restful slumber; and in stomach troubles, Duffy's soldier is not required to deal with substances strange to its methods of working, as in the case with ordinary tonics, those who "Get Duffy's and keep well" are ever grateful for its wonderful nourishing qualities.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY. Beware of imitations.

NOTE Get Duffy's from your local druggist, grocer or dealer. If he cannot supply you, write us, we will tell you where to get it. Medical booklet free.

Who The Candidates Are

The Democratic city campaign committee today begins the presentation of a brief review of the careers and records of candidates for office on the Democratic city ticket, believing that the people should be well informed upon the manner of men who come before them seeking their franchises. Read and reflect and then, remembering what has been done and what is promised, consider as to whether or not these men are entitled to your support as executives of city business, your business, if you please, for the coming two years.

WM. GERGENS, Chm.
WM. GABLEMAN, Sec.

FOR MAYOR, ADAM FRICK

The Democratic city ticket is headed by Mayor Adam Frick, who after almost two years of service, comes before the people for approval or disapproval. Mr. Frick has been an active citizen of Portsmouth for many years. He was successful in his own business, and in building that up, he made a record for honesty and attention to affairs second to none in the community. Some years ago he was prevailed upon to run for the legislature and was elected and re-elected to the state house of representatives. In that body he was noted for his close attention to matters before the legislature. He made it a point to carefully study every bill introduced and he cast his vote as his judgment and his conscience dictated, regardless of personal or political considerations. He was most accessible to his constituents and he was always ready to listen to arguments or pleas of those who disagreed with him as to his course of action.

Two years ago this fall, Mr. Frick was elected mayor of Portsmouth and he brought to the administration of city affairs the same conscientious and honest effort that characterized the conduct of his own business. He looked upon himself as the employee, the servant of the people, and he, from the first, sought to render the same thorough service that he would render to a private employer. During his service, Mr. Frick has been on the job early and late. He has been at the command of the people, and every man, rich or poor, high or low, knew that he could go to Mr. Frick and get a hearing. If his plea was just, prompt action followed. This has been one of the strong points of Mr. Frick's office, the manner in which complaints were received and adjusted. He has insisted upon a high standard of service from city employees and those who did not come up to this standard have been forced out. He has insisted upon order and law enforcement in the city, he has tried to be just and fair in the conduct of his police court. And above all, he has insisted upon economy and honesty in the conduct of city business. Thousands of dollars have been saved to the taxpayers and the finances of Portsmouth are rounding out into splendid shape, thanks to the efforts of Mr. Frick's administration.

The greatest single achievement of Mayor Frick's administration has been his handling of the water works situation. When contractors demanded the acceptance of work, and where some might have accepted the plant off hand, Mayor Frick refused to accept the work until he had satisfied himself by personal investigation that everything was all right. His thoroughness, his good business judgment, has saved many thousands of dollars to the taxpayers of the city. He found that much of the work was not satisfactory, and he stood pat on the proposition that it must be made so before he would allow the plant to be turned over. As a result the pumps are being rebuilt to meet specifications and they will not be taken over by the city while Mr. Frick is mayor unless they are all right. The mayor found faulty work with the reservoir, he found the floor weak in places, he found leaks here and there and he insisted upon these being made right before he would pay the balance due contractors. While this work was being done, the collapse of the reservoir came and the justification of the mayor's attitude became apparent to every one. The mayor has met with obstruction or objection, even ridicule, at every step in his contention about the water works, but he has firmly refused to accept work that did not come up to the standard demanded. As a result the city has not lost money by the resultant troubles in some units of the plant, but the burden of righting affairs has been borne by contractors, who should bear it. Mayor Frick's stand is that the people spent their money for a first class plant and that they are entitled to it. He proposes to see that they get it, if he is in office, and he is going to stand out for that so long as the various units do not come up to the mark.

For many reasons Mr. Frick has been the most discussed man ever in the mayor's chair. He comes before the people upon his record in office. He is willing to stand or fall by that. If the people see fit to retain him for another two years, he pledges himself to give the same earnest, honest, efficient attention to city business that he has given in the past.

VICE MAYOR, WILLIAM E. COOK

For vice mayor, the candidate is William E. Cook, who is now ending his first term in that office. Mr. Cook is one of the solid, substantial business men of the city, where he has lived for many years. He has been successful in his own affairs, and a few years ago when he was elected a member of the city council, he brought thorough knowledge of business methods to the management of city business. He made an ideal member of the city council and to every project that came up he gave the most earnest attention, familiarizing himself with details before voting. Two years ago he was honored by election as vice mayor and he has filled that office with his usual ability and thoroughness. He now comes before the people asking for election to his second term, and if elected he pledges his best efforts in fulfilling the duties of his office.

Mr. Cook's host of friends throughout the city are urged to remember him on election day.

CITY TREASURER, JOHN R. LYNN

John R. Lynn, Democratic candidate for city treasurer, comes from a family prominent in Portsmouth for several decades and was born here 45 years ago. He graduated from the High School in 1889 and immediately became engaged in the gas business, in which during the succeeding 20 years he was active in various parts of the country.

During the latter part of the Searcy administration he was Chief of the Fire Department, and when Mayor Frick came into office became superintendent of the water works. In both of these positions he has given excellent service and has proved to be conscientious, capable and progressive.

Two years ago he was a candidate for City Treasurer and was defeated by a very small plurality. That was the only occasion upon which he has ever been a candidate for an elective office, and, considering the fact that his opponent this year has held the position almost continuously throughout one whole generation, the former result should be reversed at the coming election.

A character beyond reproach, pronounced ability, recognized integrity and loyalty to duty under all circumstances are the recommendations offered in behalf of this candidate and the voters of Portsmouth will make no mistake when they elect him to a public office. He has long been a close student of municipal affairs and can be depended upon to handle every proposition with care and intelligence.

Mr. Lynn and the mighty good little woman who encourages him to better things and sympathizes with him in disappointments, live in a modest home of their own, he wears well with his friends.

TO PROSECUTE THEM

Contractor A. W. Burns, who is improving the Scioto Trail north of the city, stated Saturday that the numbers of machines and names of trespassers, who persisted on getting on the new road before it was finally completed would be taken and they would be prosecuted.

Movie Men Plan To Hold Outing

At a meeting of the Moving Picture Exhibitors' League of Ohio, held at Columbus the first of the week, Fred X. Tynes, of the Columbia theatre, was made chairman of a committee to arrange for a big outing of moving picture men of the state, which is to be held at Cedar Point the first week in August, 1916.

NON SUPPORT CHARGED

John Taylor, an employee of W. E. Seymour, was brought before Judge Bentley Saturday morning on a warrant charging him with failure to provide for his two months' old child, preferred by his wife, Hattie Taylor. He secured his release upon a promise to pay $3 a week for the support of the child.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Oct. 23.—Today's short session on the stock exchange gave promise of higher prices and increased activity, the opening showing general advance, with more high records in the specialties. Chief among these the motor shares and Baldwin Locomotive, the latter adding over five points to yesterday's maximum at 154½.

Some of the representative rails were higher, notably Canadian Pacific and U. S. Steel, also manifested a tendency toward betterment. In the second hour, however, heavy realizing, together with increased weakness in foreign exchange soon obliterated most gains, some specialties falling well under yesterday's final prices. The closing was irregular.

Bonds were firm.
Special stocks governed trading again today, with additions to recent high records while rails and other former favorites were relatively dull but firm. Baldwin Locomotive rose five and half to the new quotation of 154½ after some slight wavering at the outset. Maxwell Motors were 2½ higher at 72
½ and U. S. Industrial Alcohol

NEW YORK STOCKS

Made a new maximum on its two-point advance to 125. Bethlehem Steel rose ten above yesterday's close at 385 and General Motors
11 at 381.

4 APPLICANTS FOR SALOON LICENSES DENIED BY BOARD

Four applicants for renewals of saloon licenses in Portsmouth were rejected Saturday morning by the Seoto County Liquor Licensing commission, who issued licenses to fifty-one other applicants at the same time. All licenses granted were renewals.

The four applicants rejected were: Edward E. Treat, 318 Chillicothe street; Bird Garthee, 921 Chillicothe street; Twentieth Century Liquor company, 1138 Eleventh street; Walter S. Coriell, 1420 Findlay street.

Reasons assigned by the board for refusing the applications of Edward Treat and Bird Garthee were that they had not been conducting their business according to law, and were not regarded as the proper men to be in the saloon business.

In the case of Twentieth Century Liquor Club, the application was refused because the saloon is located within 300 feet of a school house. Granting a license for this place, which is in the old Joseph Dill stand at Eleventh and Railroad streets, would be in violation of the new law prohibiting a saloon with 300 feet of a public school building. Coriell's application was rejected when the board was advised that he had abandoned his business.

Opportunity will be given the rejected applicants to have a hearing before the board. The case of Bird Garthee is scheduled for Tuesday morning at nine o'clock, while that of Treat is as scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock. The Twentieth Century Liquor Club will be given a hearing if it is desired, but as legal grounds are cited for the refusal in this case, no hearing is anticipated.

In the event the board adheres to its decision after the hearings, the rejected applicants have the right to appeal to the State Liquor Licensing Commission, whose decision is final.

Licenses were granted to the following applicants, effective the fourth Monday of November:

Portsmouth—
Alfred C. Frederick, 218 Market street.
Jesse Marshall, 1111 Thirteenth street.
Julius Levine, 1016 Waller.

John Kelso, 1301 Eighth.
Glockner and Meyer, 431-433 Front.

Louis Schaeffer, 709 Chillicothe.
Albert Yuenger, 602 Second.
Albert S. Maier, 441 Front.
Hollar and Cropper, 2042 8th.
John F. Kayser, 1143 Teath.

Home Liquor Company, 847 Gallia.
Otto Lauffer, receiver, 507 Second.

John Kilcayne, 1555 Eleventh.
Julius Arbogast, 1026 Findlay.
Charles C. Ziegler, 607 Chillicothe.

Clarence H. Thornton, 232 Second.
George H. Freshell, 437 Second.

Charles W. Berry, 214 Chillicothe.
Alfred Ray, 1909 Eighth.

Adolph Hurth, 210 Market.
A. I. North, 224 Chillicothe.

Gilgen and Balmert, 833 Gallia.
William R. Schell, 827 Gallia.

F. E. Bryan, 441-443 Front.
Albert Bradshaw, 1202 Eleventh.

John A. Richter, 435 Third.
Alexander Kelso, 311 Chillicothe.

McNally and Grunwell, 437 Front.
Jacob P. Findeis, 817 Gallia.

Theodore Pierson, 1145 Tenth.
Hewner and List, Washington Hotel.

Clarence E. Cropper, 1158 Eleventh.
John P. Winters, 127 Market.

Burr and Munnery, 743 Second.
Henry Ruel, 415 Chillicothe.

William Ray, 117 Market.
Jacob Linek, 420 Chillicothe.

Joseph S. Distel, 2022 Eighth.
William Henderson, 1021 Chillicothe.

Willis A. Ward, 613 Chillicothe.
Lew Ditty, 913 Gallia.

Thomas D. Miller, 1430 Chillicothe.
George Fehr, 1015 Waller.

William Frederick, 1007 Chillicothe.
Abe Mayer, 225 Market.

New Boston—
Alexander Parks, 159 Gallia.

Harry C. Copelan, 152 Gallia.
Hans and Company, 252 Gallia.

Rudolph Kuntz, 86 Gallia.
John C. Conley, 62 Gallia.

The only new applicant so far is Joseph Krausz, of New Boston, who seeks to open a place in the old Rudolph Kuntz stand at 130 Gallia. Krausz claims that a new census of the village will show that it is entitled to another saloon, but the board can not pass upon the application until a census is taken. No new applications can be acted upon until ten days after the renewals have been made public.

TO CLOSE ROAD

Chillicothe pike will be closed from next Tuesday for 17 days. It is impossible to build a temporary road around the pike at Camp Limberger, two miles this side of Lucasville and it is necessary to close the pike. Signs to this effect will be placed at the Hempstead hospital and Lucasville. The West Side road will have to be used.

WIND UP AFFAIRS OF EAST END FURNITURE

Affairs of the East End Furniture Company were finally settled in common pleas court Saturday morning in the approval of the receivers' report, fixing of compensation of receivers and attorneys, and in the declaration of a 41.4 per cent dividend for the creditors. No objections were filed to the report.

Messrs. J. P. Pardon and H. E. Thompson, receivers, were allowed additional compensation in the sum of $849 and $250, respectively, which brings their total allowance to $1200 for Mr. Pardon and $950 for Mr. Thompson.

Allowance of $1000 fees was awarded Miller and Micklethwait and Blair and Kimble, the two legal firms representing the receivers. Of this amount Miller and Micklethwait received $400, and Blair and Kimble, $400. The court costs amounted to $47.53.

Balance in cash remaining is $963.46 to pay a total indebtedness of $23,410.65, each creditor receiving 41.4 per cent of his claim.

The Movies

Earle Williams as John Storm and Edith Storey as Glory Quayle in "The Christian," the Liebler-Vitagraph production of Hall Caine's dramatic masterpiece, coming to the Lyric next Tuesday and Wednesday.

The big attraction at the Lyric next Tuesday and Wednesday will be the Vitagraph company's production of Hall Caine's superb love story, "The Christian." In eight parts and 500 scenes. An all-star cast of Vitagraph players is headed by Miss Edith Storey and Earle Williams. More than 3,000 people are seen in the picture, which at once can be considered as the best acting picture ever made, as well as the most elaborate and careful presentation of any photoplay now before the public.

"The Christian" as a novel was a great success. Later, it was dramatized and it brought fame and wealth to Miss Viola Allen. Its present form is its best, inasmuch as the talky dialogue of the novel and drama have been eliminated and the many scenes which were omitted in the stage version, are utilized in the picturized version. It is a superb production of a wonderful story, and having been made by the justly celebrated Vitagraph company, which provided its best players and the most sumptuous production they could conceive, it becomes a photoplay masterpiece.

Miss Edith Storey assumes the difficult role of Glory Quayle, investing it with a youthful abandon and a mature understanding seemingly impossible to register on the screen. Her work is marvelous, as evinced by the widespread commendation which her work has invariably received. She is "The Bernhardt of the Screen," and no finer selection could have been made for the great part. Her principal co-worker is Earle Williams, who portrays John Storm in a masterful manner, giving the character a human touch which is most appealing. Others in this wonderful cast are Charles Kent, James Lackaye, James Morrison, Harry S. Northrup, Donald Hall, Edward Kimball, J. W. Sanbrook, Miss Jane Pearnley, Miss Alberta Galatin and Miss Carlotta de Felice.

Harold Lockwood in "The Lure of the Mask" Columbia Tonight. Harold Lockwood, one of the most popular of the younger motion picture stars comes to the Columbia tonight for the first time in many weeks, starring in "The Lure of the Mask" one of Harold MacGrath's most interesting stories.

This is a most interesting Italian picture story and the company surrounding Mr. Lockwood is of exceptional merit, including among others that rising young star in the Mutual service, Miss Elsie Jane Wilson.

For Monday, Manager Tynes announces the latest release on the celebrated Fox program in "The Song of Hate" featuring such well-known stars as Betty Nansen, Arthur Hops and Dorothy Bernard.

"The Song of Hate," which is based upon Sardon's celebrated, modern dramatic work La Tosca, reveals a story singularly well adapted to the dramatic talents of Betty Nansen, the royal actress, who has already been seen in such William Fox's successes as "The Celebrated Scandal," "Anna Karenina," "A Woman's Resurrection" and "Should a Mother Tell." The story of "The Song of Hate" is one that strikes deep into the fibers of the sexual relations between modern men and women. Written in Sardon's most trenchant style, it bites and searches like acid the frailties of our modern civilization.

No advance in prices for this Fox production on Monday: the price of admission will be 10 cents both afternoon and evening, shows starting at 1:30, 3:00, 4:30, 6:30, 8:00, and 9:30.

The Exhibit

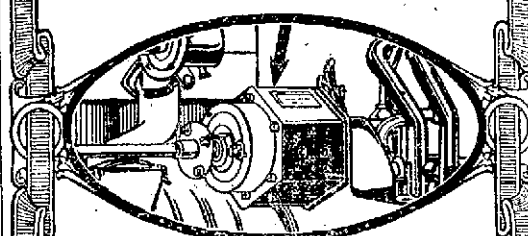

"The Path to the Rainbow" a three reel Lubin play, written by Shannon Fife, is an unusually well-written, well-acted and interesting story of a young, but old-fashioned, banker, who plans to marry his ward and finally achieves happiness by the unselfishly giving her to the man she wants to marry. The banker, in his old-fashioned way, secretly plans a home on Rainbow Hill, and then when everything is completed he proposes to his ward, only to discover that she is in love with another man and that the man is sorely in need of a large loan from the banker. How he handles the situation is a lesson in itself of usefulness. In addition to this picture at the Exhibit today, Manager Law is offering a comedy entitled, "Beautiful Belinda."

WOMAN TRIES TO KILL PRINCE

Rome (via Paris, Oct. 23)—A nephew of King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, was burned with acid and wounded with a revolver by a woman friend, the daughter of a Viennese police captain, according to advices from Vienna. A woman committed suicide. The condition of the prince is most grave and he is likely to lose his sight.

Daily Thought.

This seems to me a great truth, in any exile or chaos whatsoever, that sorrow was not given us for sorrow's sake, but always and infallibly as a lesson to us from which we are to learn somewhat, and which the something that once learned, ceases to be sorrow.—Thomas Carlyle.

Big Wet Meeting

Over one hundred voters attended the wet meeting at Henley, Friday evening, addressed by Noah Schuchter, of Cincinnati. Mr. Schuchter will close his week's campaign with speeches in Berlin, O., and in this city this evening.

THEATRICAL

At The Sun. Tonight, will witness the final performance of that wonderful play "The Divorce Question," and all who have not seen it should avail themselves of this, the last opportunity, as it is truly a play that belongs to the "worth while" class.

Commencing Monday evening the Ted Dalley Stock company will offer William E. Hodges' stirring success, "The Man From Home," and from the immense scenic efforts that are now in process of construction for this drama, it is safe to say that when the curtain goes up on first act, the audience will have the surprise of the season.

The Ted Dalley Stock company in the two plays staged this week have proved to the theatregoers that they are real artists and when asked, but always and infallibly as a lesson to us from which we are to learn somewhat, and which the something that once learned, ceases to be sorrow.—Thomas Carlyle.

CATARRH LEADS TO CONSUMPTION

Catarrah is as much a blood disease as scrofula or rheumatism. It may be relieved, but it cannot be removed by simply local treatment. It breaks down the general health, weakens the lung tissues, and leads to consumption.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is so successful in the treatment of catarrah that it is known as the best remedy for this disease. It purifies the blood. Ask your druggist for it.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson IV—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 24, 1915.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, II Kings vi, 8-17. Memory Verses, 14, 17—Golden Text, Ps. lxxvii, 1—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

In last week's lesson the conduct of Elisha, the man of God, was truly grand as he made it manifest that he did indeed stand before the living God, not cringing to nor flinching upon any human greatness nor seeking anything from any one but the Lord alone.

His correct, lying servant could not understand it and brought upon himself the reproach of Naaman. "Take heed, and beware of covetousness," for "covetousness is idolatry" (Luke xii, 15; Col. iii, 5).

The opening verses of our lesson chapter tell of Elisha going with the sons of the prophets to Jordan to obtain material to enlarge their dwelling, which had become too strait for them. We are not told what school this was, but probably the one at Jericho, for that was nearest to Jordan, and perhaps the same young men who searched in vain three days for Elisha. It looks as if there was an increase in the number of students, and if so it may have been because of the translation of Elisha. This I do know that the truths concerning the coming of Christ and associated events always lead to increase of interest in Bible study.

The lost ax recovered by a bit of tree cast into the water, which made the iron swim, makes me think of the true which made the waters of Marah to lose their bitterness (Ex. xv, 25) and of Him who is the true of life, who alone can recover the lost or sweeten bitter waters.

In our present lesson the king of Israel was delivered several times from the king of Syria because of the timely warnings of Elisha, so that the king of Syria believed that he had a traitor in his army who was a friend of the king of Israel. He called his servants to inquire which of them it was who revealed his plans to the king of Israel. It was thus that he learned that there was no traitor among his people, but that there was a prophet in Israel who could tell him everything, even the words he spoke in secret (verses 8-12).

Then the king of Syria determined to capture Elisha and sent horses and chariots, a great host, who came by night and compassed the city of Dothan, where Elisha was (verses 13, 14).

In the morning Elisha's servant, seeing this great host, was filled with fear, and said, "Alas, my master, how shall we do?" Elisha calmly replied, "Fear not, for they that be with us are more than they that be with them" (verses 15, 16). Elisha could make the words of David his own, "Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear" (Ps. xxvii, 3). He could say with Paul, "If God be for us who can be against us?" (Rom. viii, 31). Oh, the rest of such confidence in God, the victory of such a consciousness of the unseen! Moses endured as seeing Him who is invisible. David also realized in a remarkable degree the presence of the Lord.

Our Lord Jesus when he was here was ministered to by the angels and said that he could have taken them for the asking. As Elisha endeavored to quiet his servant he said, "Lord, I pray thee, open his eyes that he may see." And the young man saw the mountain full of horses and chariots of the round about Balaam (verse 17). Oh, for such a sight of unseen realities! But then comes the word, "Blessed are they that have not seen, yet have believed." "We walk by faith, not by sight" (John xx, 29; I Cor. v, 7). I do believe that the angels (not our friends who have died) are ministering to the redeemed on the earth, the heirs of salvation (Heb. i, 14). I often say to my people and to the classes that I know that I have two congregations, those whom I see and the invisible angels who desire to look into the things of which we speak (I Pet. i, 12).

As the Syrians came to take Elisha he said, "Lord, I pray thee smite this people with blindness," and he did so. Then Elisha said to them, "Follow me and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek" (verses 18, 19), for it was really the king of Israel whom they were seeking. They only wanted the prophet because he was hindering them from getting the king of Israel. Having brought them to the man they wanted, he said, "Lord, open the eyes of these men that they may see," and their eyes being opened, they found themselves in Samaria in the presence of the king of Israel. At the suggestion of Elisha he prepared great provision for them, and when they had eaten and drunk he sent them away to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel (verses 20-23).

It was certainly hopeless to think of accomplishing anything against a power that could so control them, and such kindness from one who could so easily have slain them all was too much for them. Such treatment from a people so remarkably protected by a prophet of the Lord completely subdued them. It looks like a great moral conquest.

In chapter vii we see more of the power of God in causing the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots and horses and to flee for their lives, leaving everything behind them.

"The wicked flee when no man pursueth." Nothing too hard for the Lord.

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

The local branch of International Bible Students' Association have made extensive arrangements for a lecture to be delivered under their auspices at the Temple theatre Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

With Pastor Spring for the speaker, and using for his subject "Where Are the Dead?" a double assurance is given that this will be one of the most interesting religious lectures yet delivered from any local rostrum. Bible students unhesitatingly admit that they do not hold the so-called "orthodox" view on this subject, although they claim that they are on the Bible side of the question, and whether or not their contention is correct, it seems but reasonable that fair minded persons, and especially Christian people should be willing to give them an unprejudiced hearing, and then decide the matter for themselves from a careful examination of the scriptural evidence presented.

Mr. Spring has delivered this lecture in a number of cities.

THE BROTHERHOOD CLASS

That was a mighty interesting meeting last Sunday. Ask any of the fellows who were there, and they will tell you how much they enjoyed it, and profited by it. The lesson tomorrow morning deals with the story of Elijah on Mount Carmel. Elijah is easily one of the strongest and most forceful characters in sacred, or for that matter, in any other history. You ought not to miss this lesson: "The Great Alternative." Read the seventeenth and eighteenth chapters of the first book of Kings in preparation if you wish to enter thoroughly into the spirit of the lesson. The Brotherhood class is open to any man, any Sunday morning at nine o'clock, and meets in the office of the rector of All Saints church on Fourth street, opposite the Parish House.

REV. GEORGE P. HORST,

New pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, who has taken up his work in earnest and who has given promise of being one of the most popular pastors this church has ever had. Rev. Horst came to Portsmouth from the Beacon Presbyterian church of Philadelphia.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Postmaster Vallee Harold arrived home Saturday from Washington, where he attended a convention of first-class postmasters. It was concluded with a magnificent banquet at which President Wilson was a guest.

WILL CLOSE BRIDGE

It is likely that on Monday the bridge over Ice Creek, at the east corporation line of Ironton, will be closed to traffic, and that the steel will be placed in position. It will then be necessary for all traffic to go out past the cement plant and back in the Jeffersonville road at Coal Grove or lighter traffic may be allowed to pass through the cemetery.—Ironton-Jan.

SOCIETY

General and Mrs. Jacob H. Smith, who have been spending the summer in the Adirondacks, arrived home Friday night and will be here for some weeks. General Smith is seven pounds heavier than when he left, and says he never felt better in his life. He has not as yet made his plans for the winter.

Mrs. E. E. Macquard's Sunday School class at Sciotoville, was entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Willard Bailey in honor of Miss Belle Hitchcock's guests, the Misses Sam Bishop, Mand Hopkins, Grace Warner, Belle Lewis, Lulu Rigdon, Kate Yeager and Lila Taylor, all of Portsmouth. Members of the class present were: Mrs. Jas. Ramsey, Mrs. E. E. TEUTON DRIVE come too late into the Balkan field.

Bombardment of the Bulgarian coast by an allied fleet raises hopes in England that the entente powers will not be content with landing troops in Saloniki but may cause enough of a diversion elsewhere to engage a considerable body of Bulgarian troops.

It is expected here that the arrival at the Dardanelles of General Sir Charles Monro, the new commander of the expeditionary forces, will be accompanied with renewed military activity on the Gallipoli peninsula.

In the meantime it is expected that the entente powers will continue to exert pressure on Greece raising objections to her present attitude. These objections are based on both military and political grounds. Greece's treaty obligations to Serbia, it is held, were relied upon by the entente powers as one of essential elements of maintaining in the Balkans the equilibrium to the building up of which they contributed.

They take the position that Greece is bound to support her treaty with Serbia and that a definite decision on her part to do otherwise would not be considered compatible with her friendly relations with them.

No operations of importance are taking place along the western front. According to representatives from Rome and Vienna, however, severe fighting is in progress along the Italian frontier, where after fifty hours of artillery preparation the Italians made a general advance.

Brindisi, Italy, Oct. 23. (Via Paris).—The Italian squadron is taking part in the blockade and bombardment by the entente allied warships of the Bulgarian coast in the Aegean Sea, according to a despatch received here today.

London, Oct. 23.—The British admiralty today issued the following statement concerning the bombardment of the Bulgarian coast: "The bombardment of the Bulgarian coast was carried out by an allied squadron composed of British, French and Russian ships on the afternoon of the 21st.

"A number of military positions were shelled and serious damage was inflicted on the harbor works, the railway station, and on shipping at Dedegatchah. Great care was exercised by the allied squadron to avoid firing upon any points other than those known to be of military importance."

London, Oct. 23.—Romanian newspapers as quoted in a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co., from Zurich, say that the Russian General Visnolisko asserted: "In a fortnight at the latest Russian troops will land on the Bulgarian coast."

General Visnolisko, who is Emperor Nicholas' adjutant is now on his way to Serbian headquarters.

Germans Repulsed. Paris, Oct. 23.—Yesterday evening detachments of German troops endeavored to advance from their trenches near Bois en Hache, and Givenchy, but they were quickly dispersed, according to the official statement given out by the war office this afternoon.

Paris, Oct. 23.—An official communication was given out by the French ministry of marine this afternoon announcing that the warships of the entente allies bombarded on Thursday the Bulgarian port of Dedegatchah in the Aegean Sea. The statement said: "The allies squadrons bombarded the warehouses and wharves at Dedegatchah on the afternoon of the 21st but did not fire upon the residential quarters of the city. Besides this the fleet destroyed a number of military posts along the Bulgarian coast."

of the extraordinarily bad weather, operations on certain portions of the front are being retarded.

"During the afternoon and evening of October 21, British and French ships bombarded the Aegean coast, especially the open towns of Porto Lagos, Malconis, Makri and Dedegatchah, which have no fortifications whatever. These operations of the hostile fleet were without military significance."

Home Rule Jottings

No. 7

We are still awaiting the answer of the Drys as to why they misrepresented the Home Rule Amendment last year.

"Prohibition is the abortive effort of puerile minds to bring about reform that can only be brought about by the passage of sane laws, well intended, well drawn and well enforced. Throughout this country we have hundreds and hundreds of well meaning but mistaken people who go on dropping their pennies into the contribution box of the Anti-Saloon League, that it may become what?—An aid to the man who attempts to prostitute the cloth of the church by becoming a poor politician and of every dollar you can contribute there is twenty-five per cent rake-off for the fellow that gets it. Before I would take it off the women and children, I would take eighteen inches of lead pipe and go out and peck people on the head for a living. It is not quite as profitable, but a blamed sight more manly.—Extracts from the speech of Dan Morgan Smith made in Portsmouth, October 5th, 1911. Dan Morgan Smith is now speaker of the Anti-Saloon League.

THE PROHIBITIONIST'S CREED.

Lamar, Colo., Sparks.
Believe as I believe, no more, no less;
That I am right, and no one else, confess;
Feel as I feel, think only as I think;
Eat what I eat, and drink but what I drink;
Look as I look, do always as I do,
And then, and only then, I'll fellowship with you.

That I am right and always right, I know,
Because my own convictions tell me so;
And to be right is simply this to be Entirely and in all respects like me;
To question, doubt, or hesitate, is sin.
I reverence the Bible if it be
Translated first and then explained by me;
By churchly laws and customs I abide,
If they with my opinions coincide,
All creeds and doctrines I admit divine,
Excepting those which disagree with mine.

Let sink the drowning if he will not swim
Upon the plank that I throw out to him;
Let starve the hungry if he will not eat
My kind and quality of bread and meat;
Let freeze the naked if he will not be Clothed in such garments as are made for me.

'Twere better that the sick should die than live.
Unless they take the medicine I give;
'Twere better sinners perish than refuse
To be conformed to my peculiar views;
'Twere better that the world stand still than move
In any other way than that which I approve.

Labor News from Dryest Georgia:

The last session of the Georgia Legislature passed an amendment to the child labor law raising the age limit from twelve years to fourteen years, with a poverty exemption of from ten years to twelve. And then this benevolent Dry Legislature refused to provide factory inspectors to enforce the law. Oh yes, Prohibition is good for the toiler, especially the child.

Prohibitionists can be divided into the following classes: Those who believe in it, those who are in it for what they can get out of it, and those who have the "Meddlers Itch" and who are not satisfied unless they can interfere with some one else's affairs.

Give Credit Where Credit Is Due

Some of the things that the present administration has done :

1. Paved Gallia Pike---a splendid job, costing about $75,000,---in itself an engineering achievement.
2. Paved 27 other streets, aggregating nearly $150,000.00 in cost in these two years, as against 19 streets only partially completed at a cost of less than $100,000.00, none of which were assessed, during the preceding administration.
3. Built every sanitary sewer extension petitioned for at an aggregate cost of over $40,000.00; now installing a complete sewer system for the whole North End west of Offnere street, and including the Sunnyside Addition.
4. Has everything in readiness for the Chillicothe-Offnere Street Flood Wall Extension and for replacement at the "Point."
5. Kept the streets clean.
6. Kept up garbage service without complaints.
7. Made the hospital habitable and the pay ward self-sustaining. Equipped a nurses' home.
8. Doubled the area of the cemetery, improved its condition within and without.
9. Vetoed the exorbitant bills for extras on the new Water Works, and is refusing to pay any money until contractors complete their work according to specifications.
10. Is supervising the construction of the Lawson Run Viaduct, and is insisting that the city's interests be conserved in this improvement.
11. Has Flood Pumps and Flood Defenses in best possible shape.
12. Installed water service in New Boston at the city's terms, not New Boston's.
13. Is completing all paving and all sewerage in East Portsmouth, including Mabert Road.
14. Has encouraged the Street Railroad Company to imbed its tracks on best possible concrete construction on the newly paved streets; has company's promise to replace defective paving along old tracks at an early date.
15. Of necessity, doubled the work of the Engineering Department, but reduced cost of this department over 40 per cent by abolishing useless jobs.
16. Installed heads of the Service, Safety, Hospital, Police, Fire, Cemetery and Water Works departments who are conceded to be the best persons obtainable for these positions.
17. Gave equal justice to all classes in the police court.

Did All These Things Though Confronted At The Outset With A $25,000.00 Deficit In The Service Fund And A $20,000.00 Overdraft In The Safety Fund.

Some Of The Things The Present Administration Pledges For It's Second Term :

1. Complete a sanitary sewer system for the hill top and Lawson Run territory.
2. Build if possible, an auxiliary intake, reservoir and supply main for the Water Works system, to reduce insurance rates.
3. Investigate the practicability and reasonableness of cost of a motor driven Fire Department to reduce fire hazards.
4. Entirely complete the City's Flood defenses, from Offnere Street to Earlytown.
5. Continue economy, industry and efficiency in all city departments.
6. AND WILL KEEP ON TRYING TO CORRECT SOME ONE ELSE'S BLUNDERS AT THE NEW WATER WORKS.

WET ORATOR TALKED TO WEST END AUDIENCE

Nash Schechter, the wet speaker from Cincinnati, who has been touring Scioto county for the wets this week, addressed a good-sized meeting this afternoon on the lower Market street square. He said in part:

"Prohibition is without a doubt the greatest impossibility that has ever been tried to be put over the people of any nation. Its repeated failure in states where it has been tried and is being tried ought to be sufficient proof that it would be a fallacy to try it in this state.

"In 1853 prohibition was tried in Maine and was repudiated in the same year.

"Every once in a while you will find somebody who will try to tell you what to do and what not to do, not because they love you the less, but because they love themselves more.

"The Anti-Saloon league has been the old enemy, the 'Demon' and has started in to fight 'Prohibition'. I have always contended that most of the agitators of the Anti-Saloon league are 'ex-convicts' and are now trying to tell the people who are decent and law abiding to let the stuff alone.

"If they would put in as much time in correcting themselves and their children they wouldn't have any time to try to correct us and our children. That old statement of last year that the Anti-Saloon league made to the effect that we were prohibition defeated and Home Rule carried we would have a saloon at every cross road and corner of every pike in the county; that the Sunday closing law would be disobeyed and that the regulated saloon would become a rendezvous for crime and lawlessness.

"I have been in the county all week and have touched nearly every corner of it but I have as yet to see the first saloon outside of Portsmouth and New Boston. I have lived in this state for a good many years and in the wettest city of the city at that, and I have as yet to see where the saloon has not been regulated in the best manner possible, or where any laws have been violated.

"The Anti-Saloon league or the Anti-Everything league, for one of the ministers declared himself at the recent Anti-Convention in Atlantic City, would not only deprive us of the privilege of drinking, but also of smoking and chewing tobacco. The minister, if he had his way, said he would stop the manufacture of cards, dice, checkers, dominoes, would stop the playing of baseball, in fact, stop everything in which there is a possibility of gambling.

"The Anti-Saloon league is an organization for the benefit of a few grafters who have had to find that way of getting their graft, being unable to fool the people in the old-fashioned way. Their importation of cyclones and tornadoes from other states to do their agitating for them seems to have increased with the times. I may not be a cyclone or a tornado, I may be only a mild little zephyr, but I have this much to say for Mrs. Armor, the Georgia cyclone, who spoke here for the dregs last Monday night. If she would roll up her sleeves at home in Georgia where she belongs and go after conditions there as they exist, the most deplorable conditions that the working people of any state have to work under, where the children at the tender age of eight or nine years are put to work in the cotton mills until their very vitality is gone and they become human wrecks hardly fit for a civilized world, and only fit for a pauper's grave, instead of coming here and trying to keep the people of this state from having a glass of beer when they feel like it, she would be doing a whole lot more for humanity than she is doing now."

Mr. Schechter will speak at the government esplanade this evening at 8:15 o'clock.

BLUE STEEL CAPTURED, SAYS ASHLAND REPORT; IS CAUGHT IN THE SOUTH

Another of the gang of four negroes wanted in connection with the recent murder of Joe Gibson, a C. & O. engineer at Ashland, Ky., has been captured, according to the following from the Ashland Independent.

"Sheriff J. E. Geiger and Mayor Wm. Salisbury received word today from the sheriff in a certain city in Georgia, that the noted negro character, 'Blue Steel,' who was wanted here on an indictment for the murder of the lamented Joe Gibson, C. & O. engineer, was under arrest and would be held awaiting advice from Ashland. It will be remembered that 'Blue Steel' was indicted by the last Boyd county grand jury on a charge of first degree murder and that his pal in this horrible tragedy, 'Black Texas,' has already been sentenced to die in the electric chair for his part in this crime. The officers are conferring this afternoon and will likely send a special officer to Georgia with requisition papers from Gov. McCreary for the return of 'Blue Steel' to this city."

Will Go To Nelsonville

James H. Delph for the past several years bread foreman at Knittels' bakery, has given up his position and will return to Nelsonville to re-enter the employ of Thos. Barron, where he was employed for several years before coming to Portsmouth. Mr. and Mrs. Delph remove to Nelsonville early next week. Many friends here will regret to see them go, but are pleased that Mr. Delph has secured such a splendid position, with a much larger salary, and they have already secured a fine home in the thriving little city up on the beautiful Hocking.

What Every Mother Knows.
Every Mother knows that during the trying period before baby comes the use of Mother's Friend, a dependable external remedy obtained of druggists, is absolutely necessary so as to avoid the pains caused by undue tension upon the cords, ligaments and muscles resulting from muscular expansion. Under the surface is a network of fine nerve threads and by applying Mother's Friend all these are soothed and helped. Expansion is natural and pains are relieved. In many cases nausea, morning sickness and other distresses are avoided.

The New Boston Tigers will have the above lineup Sunday when they meet Ironton's best team.

Gridiron sport lovers will miss the best game of the season Sunday if they do not go out to Millbrook park and see the New Boston Tigers clash with the best football eleven in Ironton. The pick of players from the Lombard and Midway teams have been rounded into one strong team. Ex-high school and college players form the backbone of both elevens. The Tigers have the best team in this part of the country and are ready to defend their claim at any time.

Starck played quarter-back for a strong Huntington eleven last year. James Lynn and Robert Padan are ex-Portsmouth high school stars. Jim Culver, full back, had experience on the famous Canton, O., eleven, a team that is known all over the state. Matthews is an ex-college player. Fredlocke played with Western Maryland Preparatory school several years. Test is an ex-high school player and was a mainstay on the 1914 P. H. S. eleven. He would be one of the stars of the P. H. S. team this season, but is out of the game on account of playing professional baseball.

The game will be called at 2:30.

Presbyterian Gym Opened Last Night

The Boy Scouts of the First Presbyterian church, opened the gym for the coming fall and winter months last night. Scoutmaster, Rev. J. W. Dunning was in charge of the event. The first number on the program was a boxing match of three rounds length. A basketball game provided to be the great attraction of the evening, as it was as close and hard fought a game as could be staged. Two teams, the Reds and Blues opposed each other. At the end of the first half the Reds were leading by one point, and after the beginning of the second half the Blues gained the lead. In the last half minute of play Fortner the star of the Reds, shot two long field goals, putting his team ahead by one point. The score was Reds, 20; Blues 19.

Had Regular Lineup

McDermott, O., Oct. 22.

Sporting Editor Times:
Replying to an article that appeared in Wednesday's Daily Times, signed by an "interested spectator," will say that this particular "interested spectator" certainly does make some very strong assertions relative to the truth and everything in general.

Now, in regard to our former article, we feel that we stated the truth when we made the statement that we had our regular lineup with the exception of Meyers and Monk, of the Portsmouth Spiders. Long & Crabtree are regular members of our team and Mr. Long has been playing with us about all season. He is a resident of our township and is not from Lucasville, as stated by the interested spectator. However, he did play with the Lucasville team early in the season. Crabtree has been playing on our team about two months, and we consider him one of our regular players, and I am at a loss to understand why these two players have anything to do with reference to the merits of the two teams.

Now, in conclusion, we trust that this will bring to a close these series of articles, and offer the following suggestions to the "interested spectator":
If he is really a royal fan sport, we think that he should open up his heart and donate his team with a real ball diamond.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and nobody can tell. Brush it through hair.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your claim. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur restores its appearance a hundredfold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wynell's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this tonic as preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL DISSOLVED PERMANENTLY

Harry Strong, who has been business agent of the Building Trades Council for the past few years, stated Saturday that the council dissolved permanently two weeks ago. He added he was not at liberty to state the causes leading to the dissolution.

The members of the Council have been meeting every Wednesday evening since that time, winding up the business affairs of the organization.

The Building Trades Council was formed in 1912, seven crafts identified with the building industry being represented. It was an organization independent of Central Labor Council.

Recently, suit to dissolve the Building Trades Council was filed in common pleas court by the master plumbers of the city, who also wanted a permanent injunction restraining its members from interfering with their business. Judge Tarbell of Georgetown, presided at the hearing and decided all points at issue in favor of the Council.

It is the second time in recent years that a Building Trades Council in this city voluntarily dissolved. A similar organization was formed in 1910, but it disbanded a little over a year later only to organize again the following year.

Thief Ralids Coop; Chickens Taken

Between twenty-five and thirty chickens, valued at $15, were stolen from an outside coop at J. W. Stout's store, corner of Eleventh and Gay streets, Friday night.

The discovery was made early Saturday morning and at once reported to the police, although there was absolutely no clue left to the guilty parties. Mr. Stout had just filled up the coop with a week-end supply, as is his custom Friday nights. The steeps of one of the four compartments of the coop was pulled out and the doors of two others were pried up, while the fourth proved too much for the thieves, they finding it impossible to force the Yale lock on its door.

SCIOTOVILLE GETS INTO LINE, WITH HAPPY RESULTS

Coming direct from the individual engagements with specialists in other cities are being cancelled, and some whose condition had been reported as hopeless, have gained hope and relief through the use of the "Master Medicine."

The following is one of the most interesting of many statements that are being made to the Taulac man, regarding the famous medicine, Taulac.

"We all think it is remarkable how my brother, Bruce Patton, of Sciotoville, has improved since beginning the Taulac treatment. The last time he was in to see us he was getting along without either crutch or cane. Previous to taking Taulac, he had such a severe case of the rheumatism that he was compelled to use either cane or crutch. No kind of food could be retained in his stomach, but this trouble has also been overcome. He gained three pounds while using the first bottle of Taulac."

The above statement was made by Mrs. M. B. Cooper of 618 Fifth St., Portsmouth. Mrs. Cooper also stated that her brother had been told that he had tubercular trouble, but had never been convinced of this, rather being inclined to think that the trouble was mainly with his stomach, and that his rundown condition was caused from non-assimilation of his food, and consequently insufficient nourishment, which seems to be the case.

Numberless people are suffering without knowing what their trouble really is. Catarrhal affection of the head quite often extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and stomach, with the resultant emaciated condition, some times mistaken for a tubercular trouble.

By cleansing the blood of its impurities, and its wonderful tonic effect, Taulac has proven to be nature's greatest assistant.

Taulac is most effective in instances of catarrh of the head, stomach, liver and kidneys, also rheumatic troubles.

Taulac is called the "Master Medicine", and is on sale in Portsmouth at The Fisher & Streich Pharmacy, corner Sixth and Chillicothe Sts., where representatives are meeting large crowds daily and courteously explaining Taulac.

We Want You To Buy Jewelry of Us.

FOR LUNCHEON CLOTH

Corner design for luncheon cloth. Use medium heavy linen. The medallion is done in Richelieu work, the balance of the design in ladder stitch and eyelets. Finish with a lace edge. Use mercerized cotton No. 25. If a simpler cloth is preferred, the medallion and ladder stitch surrounding it may be omitted. DIRECTIONS FOR TRANSFERRING In taking off these patterns, lay a piece of impression paper upon the material, place the newspaper pattern over this, and with a hard, sharp pencil draw firmly over each line. If the material is sheer it may be laid over the pattern and drawn off with pencil, as the design will show through. No patterns of these designs are available.

Mrs. A. G. Dunn, the Misses Helen and Mildred Dunn and Harold and Pearl Dunn motored to South Webster today to visit relatives over the week-end and go outing. Miss Helen Dunn will motor back in the morning to get her father to take him out to South Webster for over Sunday.

General and Mrs. Jacob H. Smith have returned from a delightful summer spent in the Adirondacks.

Mrs. Augusta Sappington, who has been visiting at the homes of Mrs. Marvin Clark and Mrs. W. B. Altsman, will go home to Chillicothe tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Altsman will drive her to Chillicothe in their car.

Miss Lucy Scott was hostess at last evening's meeting of the Kensington Club. The evening was enjoyed in the club, after which refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Emma Daehler, on Eighth street.

Rev. L. J. Hepper, of the United Brethren church, will preach Sunday evening at the New Boston Baptist church.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union asks every Christian home in the city to set apart the hour from 8 to 9 each morning next week for prayer for Sabbath observance and prohibition.

Rector and Mrs. E. Ainger Powell will entertain informally at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rice.

Mrs. John Somers, of Lincoln Hill, has returned from Wilmington, where she went to attend the Ohio Baptist State Convention. Miss Marie Miller, who accompanied her to Wilmington, went to Ada to spend a week with her sister, Mrs. Richard Funk. Rev. F. W. Chase and Rev. Mr. Crabtree, of the Hutchins Street Baptist church, and Rev. Mr. Hart, of Kendall Avenue Baptist church, have all returned home. Mrs. Somers and Miss Miller went as delegates from the First Baptist church. Five hundred delegates attended the meeting, which is one of the largest ever known.

Miss Tillie Bevis is ill with malarial fever at her home on Grant street.

The Bigelow Methodist Queen Esther Circle will meet Monday evening at seven o'clock, at the home of Miss Edna Rouse, on Officers street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ribble, of 201 Washington street, entertained last evening with an old-fashioned chicken supper in honor of the twenty-second birthday anniversary of Messrs. Emerald and Emory Clark, twins. Mrs. Ribble was assisted in dispensing the hospitalities by her daughter, Mrs. Emma Daggey. Those present were Misses Helen Ribble, Mattie Ribble, Freda Buchart, Gertrude Crawford and Lucile Clark; Messrs. Emerald and Emory Clark, Theodore Ribble, Jake Winkler, Raymond Bybee and George Ribble. Mesdames Henry Ribble, W. C. Ribble, Emma Daggey, W. W. Schmidt.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Mt. Zion held their weekly session at the church Wednesday afternoon and had quite the happiest meeting of the year, being visited by a number of ladies of the Siloam Aid Society. The visiting ladies were Mrs. Martha Dameron, Mrs. M. S. Gammon, Mrs. S. T. Garvey, Mrs. J. G. Richards, Mrs. Robert Dameron, Mrs. Robert Bush, Mrs. Jennie Bush, Mrs. J. H. Kennedy and Mrs. Womack. The ladies of Mt. Zion present were Mrs. John Hall, Mrs. Nat King, Mrs. Wm. Lawson, Mrs. M. K. Biggs, Mrs. Cale Hitchcock, Mrs. Ethel Womack, Mrs. O. W. King and Miss Ella Hitchcock. Quilting was the order of the day and everybody worked and talked with a right good will. Before the meeting adjourned "cookies" and apples were enjoyed, and when this delightful meeting came to a close all unanimously agreed to meet again ere long.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60.

Dear Miss Wise—Please tell me what causes humping, and can it be cured? My little daughter, six years old, humps awfully. A MOTHER. Lumping sometimes comes from a defective formation of the tongue. If she is what is called "tongue-tied" she will hump because of her inability to place her tongue properly. Let a physician examine her mouth.

Dear Miss Wise—After I wash my face with warm water and soap it turns red in spots and burns until I can hardly stand it. What is the cause of this, and what must be done about it? I always use the best of soaps. Does olive oil grow hair? ELIZABETH.

If I were you I'd try a different soap, as the one you are using is evidently too strong for your skin. Maybe the water is too hot, or you might rub your face too hard. Use a pleasant cold cream on your face if it is inclined to be "downy."

Dear Miss Wise—Please give me Henry Ford's personal address. I want to write him, but do not want to send the letter to his auto factory for fear he won't get it. A READER.

His personal address is Dearborn, Michigan.

Dear Miss Wise—I fear I have small stones. In fact a physician has told me so. I read somewhere that they were caused by bacterial infection, of the lining of the gall sac. In other words, the bacteria, plus mucus, form a mass upon which cholesterin and bile salts from the bile are deposited, until the stones reach a size varying from a small shot to a peach size. I am told the operation is not as serious as the disease.

LADY READER. Better ask your physician what causes them. However, I read somewhere that they were caused by bacterial infection, of the lining of the gall sac. Dear Miss Wise—Will you tell me what to do to the base of an oak branch in order to preserve them? LITTLE SUSIE.

I know of no way of preserving them upon the branch. Separate leaves may be submitted to extreme heat by heavy pressure and left under weight for some days, having been laid flat perfectly smooth between sheets of blotting paper. When taken out they should still be green or what color they were when put under the weight. Varnish them with a

Dear Dolly—I want to have a popcorn ball party soon and would like for you to tell me how to make the crispettes.

Stella. For popcorn balls, make an oil-finished molasses candy, or sugar candy, and just before taking the kettle from the fire, stir in enough popcorn to thicken it until you can not move the spoon. Take out the mixture by the spoonful and as soon as you can handle it form into balls, rolling them, when formed, over and over again in dry popcorn until no more will stick to them.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me exactly what is proper to put on place cards at an informal dinner.

A HOSTESS. It is not necessary to have more than the name of each guest written on each card. However, such more fun is added to the affair if you can write an appropriate couplet or verse on each card. Or an other amusing thing to have on the cards is a cartoon of each person.

SOCIETY

A pretty surprise party was given last evening in honor of the sixteenth birthday anniversary of Miss Marie Geibel, at her home on Eleventh street. Miss Geibel was invited to spend the day with Miss Annette Price, in Sciotoville. Last evening Mr. Arbo May motored up and brought the two young women home, and the surprise was completed when Miss Geibel found her friends. The rooms were beautifully decorated in yellow and white dahlia, chrysanthemums and other pretty fall blossoms. Music and games were the pleasure of the evening. Delicious yellow and white ice cream and cake were served and the favors were bean-bon snap cups. Miss Ruth Baker was given the favor, a Hallmark doll, for being the prettiest girl at the party, and Clara Guffey received a pipe for being the funniest looking boy. The guest list was as follows: Misses Annette Price, Ruth Baker, Dorothy Wright, Olga Blum, Hazel Gilman, May Callender, Cecile Wertenbee, Helen Schwartz, Margaret Bode, Marie Young, Dorothy Yates, Georgia Jacobs, Katherine Exelbier, Messrs. Ralph Hawkins, Clara Guffey, Oscar McClure, Clifford Martin, Hinton Fredrick, Bart Holcomb, Howard Davis, Thomas Baker, Ellsworth Damon, Howard Exelbier, Arlo May and Orville Price. Miss Geibel was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

SPECIAL TO WOMEN

The most economical, cleansing and germicidal of all antiseptics is

Partine

A soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed. As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that assuage feminine ills it has no equal. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Partine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority. "It is worth its weight in gold," say druggists. PURSuing HUSBAND RELENTS: GIVES UP BRIDE

Banker's Son Goes Home With Parents; Ringless Bride Is On Way To Detroit

Emotional appeals of his mother and persuasive powers of his father triumphed over the little bride, who had been married a week, and caused Frank Hyde, the young son of Banker U. G. Hyde, of Buchanan, Va., to forsake his runaway bride of a week here Friday evening and return home with his parents on a midnight train.

The bride, Mrs. Marie Engleby Hyde, totally indifferent to the stand taken by her husband, remained close to her room at the Brunswick hotel and left on the 4 o'clock N. & W. train for Cincinnati, bound for her original destination, Detroit, Mich., where she claimed to have friends.

Though he had previously remarked to the police officials that he would not go so far as to resort to any force, Banker Hyde succeeded in inducing his son's bride to give up two very valuable diamond rings, including her wedding ring, he claiming it was his money largely that was used in purchasing them.

When Mr. and Mrs. Hyde arrived at police headquarters they were at once ushered into Chief B. E. Allen's private office and found their new daughter-in-law seated there. No greetings were exchanged by them. Mr. and Mrs. Hyde immediately retracing their steps from the room, saying they wanted to see their son. The bride was taken into an adjoining room. She was able to hear practically everything that was said between her husband and his parents and snarled repeatedly at the father told of his investigations about her, saying he had learned that she was a divorced woman, and had a child by a former marriage.

Young Hyde wept bitterly throughout the arraignment of his bride and emphatically declared he would be dead within forty-eight hours. At the sight of his mother stepping from a taxicab, he had begged for a gun, according to Chief Allen.

When her appeals for him to give up the woman and think of his sisters and brothers at home seemed to fall on deaf ears, the mother suddenly swooned away and was with difficulty revived. This deeply affected the son.

They were finally left to themselves, and after considerable time had elapsed it became apparent that the parents had won over their boy.

Local German's View Of European War

(Written by Louis F. Korth, former Editor of The Correspondent.)

The Allies always open their campaigns with great victories. So the Serbians only followed suit when they electrified the world this and the other side of the big pond at the opening with the startling intelligence that they had defeated the German-Austrians in a big battle on the Danube and colored the blue waters of it with the blood of 40,000 of their enemies. But right after the wires had cooled off from the fiery flashes the laconic messages of the German General Staff told us that Mackensen's forces after crossing the Danube without a bridge under heavy fire had taken all the fortified heights south of Belgrade and Semendria and were on the roads south of them.

They have since stormed the important Avala heights and reached the mountain passes at Petrovatz while Gallwitz's forces, after flanking Passaravatz fortress, on parallel roads to the east have got to the Onolje Plateau and joined them. The Serbians offer brave resistance but are beginning to give away which suggests the probability that Germans and Bulgarians will join hands within a week in this section.

The Bulgarian wedge is gaining force. Bogacheff's troops are threatening Nigotin and Kladovatz, where the Timok river road meets the Danube and are clearing the lower Timok valley. They seem to have a grip on rivers and railroad, whereby the transporting of munition and supplies for Ivanoff's army in Volhynia and Southeastern Galicia as well as Russian support for the Serbians would be shut off.

The Bulgarian army under Tontcheff which invaded Southern Serbia from Kostendil and Eder Palanka has cut the Saloniki-Uskub-Nish railroad between Vranja and Kumanovo in two places so that the Serbian forces in that section can neither get supplies out of the Allies depots at Saloniki nor can the Allies come to their aid without fighting their way. Paris admits that the Serbians are seriously menaced.

Bulgarian forces also are operating against the railroad south of Uskub. They have occupied Istip and Radoviz, about 25 miles east of the railroad and the Vardar river, and are about to join Tontcheff's forces north of Demitrap.

The French are concentrating on the lower end of the line between Chevet and the Strumitza river and the first clash between them and the Bulgars is expected in this region as the latter are evidently operating to get in their flank and rear. If the French are defeated they will have to retreat upon Greek territory. What will the Greeks do with them?

Turkish forces that are to co-operate with the Bulgarians are being assembled at Dedegatch on the Aegean Sea. The Allies have landed a force at Enos west of Dedegatch and the British fleet is shelling the forts.

Berlin reports: "Bulgarian troops have captured Sultan Tepe an important strategic position, and have taken 2,000 Serbian prisoners and 12 cannons." Sultan Tepe is south of Nish.

In the northwest of Serbia between Save and Drina, commonly called the Maeva, the Austro-Hungarians under General Koevess are standing before Shabat.

Another Austrian column from Bosnia is marching upon Cattaro and Cetinje, the capital of Montenegro.

Hindenburg is as active as ever on the Dnepr and by Petrograd advises General Below is fighting in four directions on the Riga front, endeavoring to force the river at Friedrichstadt and cut the Riga-Duenaburg railroad.

Operations directly around Duenaburg have not come to a standstill, as Petrograd has reported, in fact there has been hard fighting every day but progress is slow as an early winter with snow and slush, mud and mire in the bottoms retards operations that may be pushed with more vigor when the ground freezes.

The Russians hold their positions with superior force and great tenacity as they not only control the road to the sea but the roads to Petersburg and Moscow as well.

By late reports Hindenburg's forces have crossed the Misa (arm of the Dnepr) at Belin, just south of Riga, defeated the Russians at Jacobstadt, west of Duenaburg and north of Wessow and after a sharp attack of the Russians at Smorgon drove them beyond their old lines.

A battle has been going on for over a week, the result of which is that the Germans have gained a firm footing on the north bank of the Dnepr at Bersemeuden.

Petrograd claims that the Russians have cut some of Prince Leopold's lines at Baronovichi north of the Pripiet river. Berlin partly confirms the statement. The Germans were forced back but held the line. The same happened to General Linsingen on the Styr in Volhynia. On Thursday Berlin reported victory for both of them again.

fortresses during their victorious summer and fall campaign is shown by the final count. In Novo Georgievsk they captured 1,461 guns, 163 machine guns, 23,219 rifles, 100,000 shots of artillery munition and more than a million of rifle cartridges, in Kovno 1,361 guns.

Martial law has been proclaimed in Moscow, no doubt in consequence of the late riots, which were only a repetition of the June troubles, in which property damage to the amount of $20,000,000 was said to be done. In Petersburg recent riotous demonstrations were squelched by Cossacks.

To assist the Serbians and force the Austrians to withdraw troops from Serbia the Italians have begun new offensive movements on the Isonzo and in Trent.

A correspondent of the Berlin Tagblatt writes: "The third battle on the Isonzo has been decided already where the Italians made their heaviest attack, between Karfreit and Tolino. Big heaps of dead cover the ground. At Gorizia and on the Dohardo Plateau the Italians had enormous losses too. Trieste is safe. To judge from the activity of their artillery in Carinthia and Trent Italians are attempting a new drive in the Alps."

Vienna says: "Everywhere have the attacks of the enemy been repulsed."

The Italians claim to have taken the little fortress Presagusta on Lake Garda, which protects the road to Riva.

An Italian squadron has left Brindisi for the Bulgarian coast.

On the Gallipoli peninsula the Turks have blown up some works of the Allies. There is little activity on either side but on the Caucasus it has revived again.

General Sir Jan Hamilton, commander of the British troops at the Dardanelles, who is held responsible for their failure, has been recalled and replaced by General Mauro.

Rumors are current that the British are going to give up the Dardanelles campaign as by enormous losses no results have been achieved and troops are needed on the Balkan.

Fighting continues uninterruptedly all along the western front, now mostly with the Germans as attackers. They drove the French out of their works on the western slopes of the Hartmann Wellerkopf in the Foch Valley and destroyed the trenches. To the east of Rheims at Prunay they took some ground. At Soehnez and north of Loos their attacks were repulsed. This shows that they are not entirely on the defensive in the west.

Paris says: "Late fighting between Rheims and Amberg, where the Germans took the offensive again, was in the nature of a battle."

London has intimated that the German submarine warfare is dead. Berlin says: "German U-boats in the Mediterranean in the last two weeks have sunk 23 ships of a total tonnage of 100,000, among them four transports of the Allies."

British submarines have appeared in the Baltic. London claims that a number of German ore-ships are locked up in Swedish ports for fear of them, which is denied in Berlin. Zeppelins are now busy in the Baltic.

Berlin also states that there have been no naval engagements in the Baltic and no German warships lost, as London has given out.

The Tribune of Rome has been let into the secret that England is baiting Greece with the cession of Cyprus which commands the entrance to the Suez Canal. If this is true England must be figuring with the loss of the canal.

It is in hard lines, but to part with Cyprus would be to break a jewel out of her crown. Greece has refused the offer.

Feeling runs high in England over the secret diplomacy of Premier Asquith and Sir Grey, who blundered at the Balkan courts and kept the people in ignorance over Germany's well meant proposals to meet Great Britain at the outbreak of the war. Both have refused to give any explanation of their Balkan policy, which is severely censured by the British press. Sir Edward Carson, attorney general, has resigned from the cabinet because he holds different views than his colleagues on conscription and the conduct of the war, and Mr. Asquith has suddenly become so ill from gastric troubles that he needs rest.

John Redmond, who has kept the Irish in line, declares that the position of the coalition government is precarious. As precarious as the military position of the Allies? The British people are by no means a unit on the war and much less so on the conduct of the war. The heart of the labor people, who have to bear the brunt and burden is not in it. Asquith and Grey wanted to head off revolution in Ireland by war and they now face revolution in England. No wonder Mr. Asquith has gastric troubles.

England must have 3,000,000 men by next spring to cope with Germany, which can raise 10,000,000 more men of 18 to 45 years of age in spite of her losses, the recruiting general Sir Eric Swaine told his hearers in a speech at Hull, advocating a general conscription law.

High life in England has not decreased but has increased during the war contrary to life on the continent, is the indignant reproach of a French writer to the British. In a press letter he says: "All the clubs remain open, the saloons are always full, and the twenty-dollar theater is as crowded as the ten-cent movie house. Those who are getting the 'war profits' are spending them royally. You feel that the great city (London) has its pockets bulging with notes and gold."

And a German woman writer who has visited the slums of London describes them as wretched beyond any description, worse than hell.

Paris papers assert that Germany is running short of copper and all copper household articles are being collected by the government to be cast over for war purposes. If that is true the want will be lifted when the Germans get to Turkey as the Argive mines in Asia Minor class with the richest in the world. Germany also could get a limited supply of cotton from Turkey.

The subscriptions to the third German war loan, the last, amount to over 12,000 million Marks, of which half is paid in.

"The German nation in one single year, from September, 1914, to 1915, has laid upon the altar of the Fatherland 25 1/2 Billion Marks, on the first loan 4 1/2 Billion, on the second 9 Billion and on the third over 12 Billion, without affecting the money market and offering a bonus as England has done with her half billion loan in the United States."

This is the statement of Germany's great financier, Riesser.

The military governor of Belgium, General von Bissing, describes the condition of the country as normal. The people from now on will have plenty to eat. Industry is lagging for the want of raw material, but all the mines are working. Compulsory school attendance is in effect everywhere. The governor general

United States at the close of the present war from those of the belligerent nations which American ambassadors represent in the war capitals of Europe, no less than nine of them, because after peace has been declared a bill for services will be presented, which is the custom.

"Those who are set against the so-called 'hyphenated American' as not American at heart because he has a warm spot in it left for father and mother and the place where they rest may take consolation from the fact that the war is rapidly depleting the ranks of those under 45 years of age who generally emigrate. The stupendous casualty lists suggest that few will come in the next ten years and many of those who wish to come will be unable to meet the requirements of our immigration laws regarding capacity to earn a livelihood, etc."

A French flyer flotilla has again thrown thirty bombs into Trèves (Trier) by which five persons were killed and eleven wounded.

In a contribution to the weekly paper of Webster, Mass., handed to us by a friend, the Rev. Edgar W. Preble, of Charlestown, Mass., relates that Col. Marinus Willet, who took possession of Sir John Johnson's camp after the victory of Oriskany, hoisted the captured British standards over the fort and above them the first American flag, the stars and stripes, carried in the field. It was cut out of a soldier's jacket and a woman's petticoat. Rev. Preble says: "I want to tell the people that a German, General Herkimer (Herkheimer), who was leading the Germans of the Mohawk valley, had something to do with that flag. Although shot through the leg in the battle he refused to leave the field but had the saddle taken from his dead horse, and setting on it against a beech tree, on a knoll directed the fight of his men until victory was won. General Herkimer is honored by a monument on the battlefield. The historian John Fiske says: 'The battle of Oriskany, where the British regulars fought with John Brent's Indians against the colonials, was perhaps the most murderous of all the battles of the revolution.'—Quincy (Ill.) Herald."

A friend sends us the Chicago American with the story of James S. Curran of the Nicotian about the murder by the crew of the British patrol boat Buralong of ten German marines after capture. He requests to comment on it. The so-called atrocities,

THINKS COLUMBUS "SOME TOWN"

Charles G. Bennett, one of the postoffice force, who is spending his vacation in Columbus, writing to this Times man, says that he is in full accord with the publicly expressed opinion of the "boss" editor of this sheet some days since that Columbus was "sure some town." Charley says they lay over in it about every way except in "she" scenery, and in that we have 'em backed off the earth. Charley thinks there are several features up there that would mix well with our landscape and so he has made up a nice little package of Buckeye Lake, Olentangy Park, Memorial Building, the Union Depot and a few other little incidentals and will bring 'em home with him.

Woodmen Will Hold Presentation Meeting

Arrangements were made at a meeting of River City Camp, Woodmen of the World, Friday evening, for a big meeting two weeks from that time, November 5, to be known as the "Presentation Meeting and Class Initiation." A committee of five, composed of Gus Easars, Lester Janelzsky, Oliver Lewis, George Clifford and C. C. Milstead, was named to have charge of the arrangements.

On that evening the prizes won in the recent Log Rolling held during the Korn Karnival will be awarded with impressive ceremonies. The prizes to be presented are: Best float in the parade, New Boston first; Portsmouth, second. Best uniformed rank in competitive field drill, South Portsmouth, first; Portsmouth, second; Tri-State Log Rolling Association loving cup, won by Portsmouth.

Three candidates were initiated at the meeting, Harry Chueales, Edward Jones and William Standish.

A class of thirty candidates will be initiated at the big meeting on November 5.

"Homes Of Character" No. 279

A Modern Home—By John Henry Newson.

An otherwise plain and simple exterior is here made attractive by the use of wide side-siding painted white, with roof in black slate, proper spacing of windows, all glass bay and open porch in front. This bay and open porch make the living room an unusually light and attractive room. If the house faced south it might be advisable to have a roof over the entire front porch.

Note the size of the living-room and amount of wall space for furniture and pictures, also the coat closet opposite vestibule, and the size of dining room. The stairs are so arranged that rear stairs are unnecessary, which permits a large kitchen, and four bedrooms on second floor. These bedrooms are all of good size and each is provided with a large closet. The bathroom has a tiled floor and "A" grade plumbing fixtures. The third floor has finished attic and maid's room.

The kitchen has our usual arrangement of double drainboard sink, with cupboards above, and additional cupboard space is provided in refrigerator room.

The basement, which extends under entire house, has laundry trays, toilet, fruit room, vegetable bins and coal bin.

With living room and dining room finished in oak, kitchen and third floor in yellow pine, second floor in white enamel, hardwood floors, hot water heating plant and good plumbing fixtures, this house can be built for from $3500 to $4500. Advise us concerning local costs of material and labor and we will make an accurate estimate of cost under these conditions.

This design is 28x32 feet in size and so planned that materials work to the best advantage. Price of plans $17.50. Specifications $2.50.

Going to build? As a Times reader it is your privilege to make inquiries concerning any of these "Homes of Character." No charge by Mr. Newson for his replies. Always give the number of the house and address your letters to "John Henry Newson, Homes of Character Dept., The Times."

COCK OF THE WALK.

Life, these days, must be one grand, sweet song to the Hon. Nate B. Gilliland. Here for years he had been the goat of the Republican party. Every time he stuck his head up the ruling powers united in making him a target, and there wasn't anything too mean to say about him. He was called everything from a turncoat to a traitor, and told in seventeen different kinds of language, to go hide himself and get out of the party. But things have changed now. In its extremity the G. O. P. organization has turned with appealing hands to Nate and has hailed him as the oratorical Moses who is to lead them into the Promised Land of office. Honeyed words have replaced the billingsgate, and he now rides in the automobiles instead of taking their dust. In short, Mr. Gilliland occupies the most conspicuous position in the city campaign, so far as the Republican side of it is concerned. He is the mouth-piece, the chosen orator who defends and explains and attacks. He has come into his own, and we imagine that he must sometimes go off into a corner and quietly grin to himself as he thinks of that which was and of that which is.

However, let us make a suggestion to the Hon. Nate B. We know he is canny and shrewd himself, but maybe he is overlooking in the joy of the present, the possibilities of the future. In short has Nate "screwed up" his own future so far as his new associates are concerned? Has he tied things up so that he will stay where he is, or is he just trusting to the Lord and John Eckhart and Charlie Hard and letting it go at that? If you are Nate, we fear that you will find that while the Lord may do his share, John and Charlie will bear watching.

Chicago is having a tremendous time trying to close saloons on Sunday. Yet in Cincinnati, which at least is as wet as Chicago the Greenlund license law closed the Sunday saloons and what is more kept them closed. That shows the efficiency of the law. That is one of the reasons why it should be sustained and the McDermott make-shift relegated to the discard.

Of course you will have to admit that Congressman Switzer's ex-secretary and prospective campaign manager in Scioto county, can have no interest in Congressman Kearns, or the Republican candidates for congress from Scioto county other than to see them defeated. Are Scioto county Republicans going to allow the voice of Switzer through young Gustin to lead them astray and into voting their birthright away?

In a public statement Arthur Garford, who has just fallen for governor on a straight out prohibition platform declares for the Greenlund liquor license act as the best possible license system, and condemns the McDermott act as the worst. Inasmuch as Mr. Garford can speak on the matter as one with authority, this answers completely the Willis loosey-made charge that only certain wets are against the McDermott act.

The man who stands on the First National Bank corner every day in the year, holidays included, says that he is going to call upon Orator Clinkensbeard to elucidate his remark at a recent Republican rally about a report that "all the days were going to vote for Frick." The corner man wants to know if it was intended as a clarion call to the wets to line up for Kaps, or whether it was intended to serve as a warning to the dries, or again if it just was a little remark to fill up the time and catch the crowd.

After reading about those many and varied bequests of the late Martha Cora Dow to those who had been in her employ, we suppose that there will be a lot of men sticking around in jobs under good, kind, rich employers in hopes that they will take the hint and do likewise when the time comes for them to lay down life's burden.

Byron Clendenen, in losing his position as member of the state liquor license board, retains the respect of all for his manly, straightforward conduct. As much cannot be said of J. H. Seerest, who, it is charged, used information to fight Clendenen that he had obtained from him under the protecting guise of friendship.

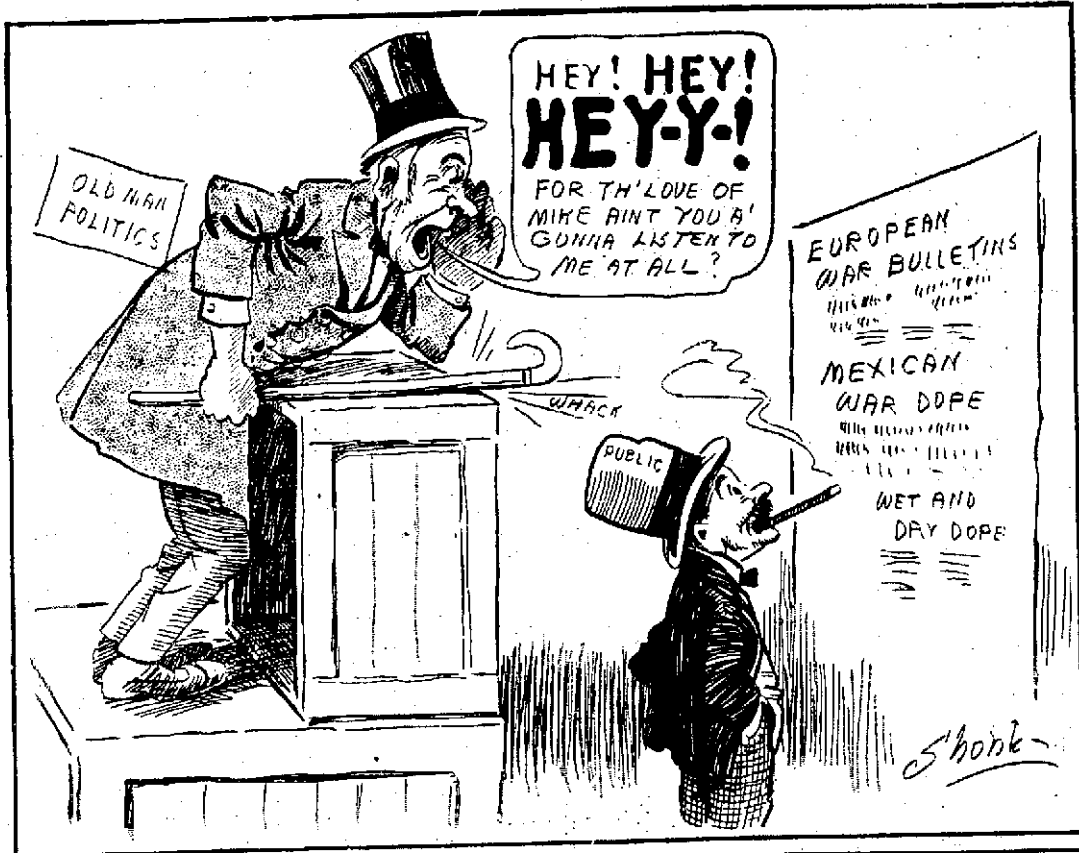

One gets a great idea of the agricultural resources of the Scioto Valley by inspecting the exhibits at the Circleville Pumpkin Show. Farm products are there in abundance, and there cannot be any finer raised anywhere. The show closes this, Saturday evening.

Candidate Kaps admits that he built the pumping station that cracked and crumbled, and that he built it over again, but he puts the blame on the other fellow, the fellow who built the foundation on which his wall rested. Well, we will let it go at that.

There will be a big increase in the vote in Adams county next year. The dehorned ones will come back into their own prior to the 1916 election.

If the wets and dries would pull off a few more meetings like that Keenan-Daly affair, they would crowd the political campaign completely off the boards.

HARD TO GET HIS ATTENTION.

The Ohio Building at the Panama Pacific Exposition must be preserved even if all the employees out there should be pickled. That's why Attorney General Turner is mandating State Auditor Donahy to make him turn over the taxpayer's money to pay for Governor Willis's $187 worth of engraved invitations and Newt Miller's bourbon and glasses.

Of course if Scioto county wants to join in keeping the Hon. R. M. Switzer in congress for life, it would be a good idea for her citizens to vote for the Sprague gerrymander. But if Scioto county voters, Republicans or Democrats, care to see a Scioto county man in congress, they will vote to smash the gerrymander and stay in the Sixth district.

Now that the grounds are being graded, the attractiveness of the new Garfield school building can be better appreciated. It is a very handsome building. If something were only done to relieve the plainness of the Campbell avenue building and grounds, we would have as good looking a set of school buildings as you could find anywhere.

The commissioners of Pike county have taken steps to stop the encroachment of corporations and farmers upon the public highways. They have ordered all fences and telephone poles that are less than 30 feet from the center of the highway, to be removed at once. It is the intention to see that all highways in Pike county are 60 feet wide as contemplated by law. It is a good move.

We rather gather from some of the remarks that were dropped into the ears of Edward Keenan as he spoke on the Gallia square the other night, by some of his erstwhile associates that he is not quite as popular in some circles as he was awhile back.

The farmer will have his rights conserved. Now comes the Hon. Mary E. Lee, who has risen from the dead lobby of 1913, to dope out stuff for the Willis gerrymander. Send in your dollar, please!

Vanceburg Notes

Of local interest the Vanceburg Notes are:

"Mrs. Liles and Bertram operated on Colonel K. H. Pich this week. The operation was very successful."

"Harry Chadwick, of Mammoth, W. Va., was the guest of his parents, Postmaster James Chadwick and wife, Saturday and Sunday."

"Mrs. Frank Neal and Mrs. Lizzie Steadham were in Portsmouth Saturday having dental work done."

"Mrs. Mary Garret and daughter, Lona Mae, of Blount, left Saturday to visit relatives at Portsmouth."

"Mrs. Myrtle Lawhorn, of Portsmouth, attended the funeral of Joe Radden, here Monday."

"Mrs. Thomas York and children of Crum, left Monday to visit relatives at Portsmouth."

"Clay Phillips was in Portsmouth on business Tuesday."

"Mrs. Charles Bertram was shopping in Portsmouth, Friday."

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

New York, Oct. 23.—Away with drab economy! Dress up and feel happy. Mrs. G. Vere Tyler says it's quite the proper thing to don fine raiment and what is better it is good for the soul. Last week was "Dress Up Week" in New York. The people here expressed confidence in the nation's prosperity by looking like ready money.

Mrs. Tyler is a southerner, a novelist, writer of short stories and plays and has always been an apostle of extravagance. She believes in it. She thinks more souls are ruined by economy than by extravagance. She has found many women with little, warped, bitter souls who would have been splendid creatures if they hadn't scrimped, pinched and cheese-paried all their lives.

A long time ago—before anyone thought of "Dress Up Week"—she was urging that people get out and buy beautiful clothes for a few days. She believes that one's environment and one's state of mind are closely related. Good clothes, she believes, stimulate the wearer.

The journalists—sometimes known as reporters—on Park Row are facing a new worry. Dr. Talcott Williams, director of the Columbia School of Journalism, believes that reporters should be licensed.

In Europe most of the reporters are muzzled and now that they are thinking of making their own licenses over here—there is little difference between a reporter's life and a dog's life.

At least dogs have no city editorial Simon Legree's to harass them from morning until night.

Harlem, where the goats used to graze, is now in the throes of an old feud—just revived. Ippolito Greco, a leader in a Sicilian faction in Harlem's Little Italy, was found dead with a gaping bullet hole in his head in the famous "Murder Stable."

Three was the twelfth person to be murdered in this stable and the fifty-second victim of a feud which has baffled the entire police of New York for twelve years.

The shrewdest detectives have only been able to learn that twelve years ago a band of horse thieves split up and the factions began a war of extermination. The "Murder Stable" was a sort of headquarters.

The pinnacle of vegetarianism has been found on a Fulton street lunch room. Those who have wrestled with oaken hams and wooden nutmegs and sawdust breakfast will not be surprised to read a new one. The remaining letters read:

TEAK CHOPS—To Order.

C. D. Edison is back on Broadway from Half Moon Mountain just gushing with pent up poetry after concentrating for three months on the Great American Hick Novel. Here is his first overflow:

"Two hundred pretty girls on ice,"
 A show bill says, The dickens!
 Who'd pay the front seat purple price
 To see cold storage chickens.

The world series in Philadelphia gave a lot of New Yorkers a chance to visit a city which they pretend to despise, but which secretly they would like to live in. There are any number of wealthy business men down-town who commute to Philadelphia daily. They like the Philadelphia suburbs better than New York suburbs and in many instances the transportation facilities are just as rapid.

Albert de Courville, director of the London Hippodrome, is in New York to see the big Hippodrome show. He was high in his praise of the spectacle.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds and Cures.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hacking, sneezing, blowing, no more headache, dizziness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what suffers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

The Donkey's Head

Oh, Patrick was an Irishman; For sport they called him "Mick." Because he was so handy with A shovel and a pick.

Pat worked upon the section gang, As Irishmen will do, And with him were two Englishmen A-laboring there, too.

The Britishers—two "foxy wights"—They thought they'd play a trick While Patrick was a-working with His shovel and his pick.

Not being of a nimble wit, They thought it quite a joke To paint a donkey's head upon The back of Patrick's coat.

Par noticed it immediately— The Democratic stamp— "Shure, O'm a shovell! O'irishman, But, bejabbers, O'm no tramp."

And, turning to the Englishmen, Who thought they had his goat, Says: "Which wan of yez wipul his face Upon me Sunday coat?"

WAR EXPERTS CLAIM EASY VICTORY IS DUE FOR TEUTONIC ARMS

Endeavor. (Via London) Oct. 23.—The military experts on the news-papers here state that not more than six months will be required to establish communications with the Turkish army. The Pesti-Napole, however, says:

"The German Emperor will spend Christmas in Constantinople at the head of his victorious troops."

The editorials in the newspapers deal on the importance of the Balkan campaign as a means of establishing a basis for an early peace. The Pesti-Hirlep says in this connection:

"The stroke through the Balkans will bring peace nearer, for it is a stroke aimed directly at England, which heretofore has stood safe and isolated, boasting of her ability to continue the war three years or more."

The Azeit says: "The Balkan campaign is the easiest task ever entrusted to an army leader. If the present plan is carried out, it will be impossible for the Allies to escape capture or disaster, and the only real military task is to accomplish all this with the smallest possible loss to ourselves."

OHIO STATE PLAYS WISCONSIN TODAY; OTHER GAMES IN WEST

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Football eleven of the West faced, the supreme test today in games considered to have important bearings in deciding championship claims.

All of the Big Nine eleven, with the exception of Indiana, were in action. Outside of the Western conference, the important contests brought together Notre Dame and Nebraska at Lincoln and the University of Michigan and the Michigan Aggies at Ann Arbor. Both Notre Dame and Nebraska claimed the Western championship honors last season, and the teams representing the two universities this season are regarded by experts as being every bit as powerful.

In the "Big Nine" the Wisconsin-Ohio State game attracted unusual interest as both teams are considered championship possibilities.

Based, Ohio's star full back who it was thought would be out of the game today, will be in the lineup. It was announced today, but may be succeeded by Sorrensen before the game is ended.

The probable lineup:

Wisconsin	Position	Ohio State
Sherman	LE	Bolen
Captain Back	LT	H. Courtney
Harbock	LG	Karch
Portinger	C	Knoll
Garner	RG	G. Courtney
Boh	RT	Cap. Boughton
Boh	RE	Ginn
Sherman	QB	Verges
Boh	LT	Winters
Boh	RT	Norton
Boh	FB	Boescl

Among the football games in the West today were:

Boh vs. Chicago at Chicago.

Wisconsin vs. Ohio State at Madison.

Boh vs. Northwestern at Evanston.

Minnesota vs. Iowa at Minneapolis.

Michigan vs. Michigan Aggies at Ann Arbor.

Notre Dame vs. Nebraska at Lincoln.

ITALIANS ON OFFENSIVE, CLAIM BIG VICTORIES

BATTLING WITH THE
BRITISH IN FRANCE

Early in the war when the expeditionary forces were being mobilized and equipped, Sir Pertrab Singh, a seventy-year-old veteran Indian prince who had seen active service in the past, organized and equipped at his own expense almost an army corps of his subjects and offered both himself and his men to His Majesty King George. The moral effect of the action and the acceptance of the volunteers by the king has tended to cement the feeling of loyalty existing between India and England. Sir Pertrab, has distinguished himself with his command with the British forces in France.

TAKE TRENCHES AT POINT OF BAYONET

Rome, Oct. 22.—(Via Paris, Oct. 23)—The following official statement received from main headquarters of the Italian army under date of October 22, was given out here tonight by the Italian war office:

"Our offensive, happily begun along the Trentino frontier, is developing and extends along the whole front to the sea. In the Gindacia valley, where the capture of Monte Melino secured for us a large amount of war material, we have occupied Monte Rei Fini and Hanalet Titano Inferiore."

In Val Lagarina the enemy, supported by batteries on Monte Bianca attempted on the evening of the 20th a counter attack on our new positions on Monte Cressino. He was repulsed and pursued with heavy losses."

At the head of the Rienz, our troops have advanced at the same time along the heights of the range of Monte Cristallo, reaching the rugged crest of Ruchkofel, and by the plain which extends towards Schindlerbach, taking enemy trenches and making some prisoners."

"In the Fella valley route by our detachments inflicted serious damage on the enemy defenses and enabled us to take guns and munitions. Leopoldskirchen has been burned to the ground. In the valley of Seisera strong bodies of the enemy have been attacked, defeated and routed, abandoning many dead."

"All along the Isone, from Carpietto to the sea, after an intense artillery preparation, our troops on the morning of the 21st, began an attack on the enemy positions which were protected by several lines of trenches strongly held. Under a violent and concentrated artillery, machine gun, rifle and hand-fire, our infantry dashed forward constantly and took at the point of the bayonet important positions. First, in the Monte Negro zone, the very strongly defended Trincerone, below the summit of Mezzi; second, in the Tolmino section, numerous positions well guarded by trenches, on the height of Santa Lucia; third, north of Gorizia, a solid redoubt on the slopes of Monte Sabotico."

SETBACK IS GIVEN TO INVADERS CLAIM SERBIAN MINISTER

Athens, Oct. 23.—(Via Paris 23)—The Serbian minister to Greece announces that the German operations in the north of his country have been temporarily suspended. The Serbians are said to have assumed the offensive and at certain points to have forced back the invaders. The German entrenchments, he states, extend only a few kilometers along the line south of Belgrade.

French and British military attaches arriving from Nish say that Vranja was not occupied by the Bulgarians, who simply made a cavalry raid there and were driven off. They further declare that the Serbians have entered Bulgarian territory.

England In Her Darkest Moment Appeals For Men

London, Oct. 23.—The appeal issued yesterday by King George to aid the Earl of Derby's recruiting campaign as a final effort to obtain the required men for military service without recourse to compulsion is framed in tone bringing home the extreme gravity of its military position, and the frankness of the appeal in this respect is emphasized in the editorial columns of the newspapers today.

The Telegraph says that the king's words are charged with "Dignity and earnestness of lofty purpose. Let there be no illusions: the present moment is the darkest moment since the war began."

The Times in an editorial on what it calls "the king's stern, stirring appeal," says it is estimated that between 5,000 and 35,000 men per week are required and demands that the government would put an end to this uncertainty by definitely prescribing some test number whereby the Earl of Derby's scheme must eventually be held to have succeeded or failed.

RUSSIA CLAIMS SHE HAS SETTLED DRIVE OF GERMANS ON RIGA

London, Oct. 23.—The latest official news from Petrograd gives some indication that Field Marshal von Hindenburg's drive toward the Baltic Port of Riga has again been checked and that, near the center of the German line, German counter attacks have been repulsed. Fighting in the left bank of the Styr continues, and the Russians assert they have made further captures of large numbers of men. In the caucases lively actions in which cavalry is taking an important part, are reported.

Vienna acknowledges Austrian troops have retired in Galicia under the pressure of superior Russian forces.

The status of political affairs in the Balkans is almost equal in interest to the military situation. The belief is growing here that neither Greece nor Rumania is likely to enter the war; at least unless the entente allies gain some decisive success. Greece apparently regards this as more important than the offer of the Island of Cyprus, and it is feared in Athens that the allied troops have come too late into the Balkan field.

Bombardment of the Bulgarian coast by an allied fleet raises hopes in England that the entente powers will not be content with landing troops in Saloniki but may cause enough of a diversion elsewhere to engage a considerable body of Bulgarian troops.

It is expected here that the arrival at the Dardanelles of General Sir Charles Monro, the new commander of the expeditionary forces, will be accompanied with renewed military activity on the Gallipoli peninsula.

GERMANS HAVE NEW GUN TO BRING DOWN AIR CRAFT

New York, Oct. 23.—On reason why the aircraft of the nations of the entente are not now making so many attacks upon German cities as heretofore is that the Germans have invented a new anti-aircraft gun with an accurate range of more than 10,000 feet, according to Lieutenant Paul S. Arbon of the British army aviation corps. Lieutenant Arbon, who arrived here yesterday on board the Baltic from Liverpool, was sent over to inspect some machines which are being constructed in the United States and Canada. He said:

"A great deal has been accomplished in aviation by the British government since August, 1914. At that time there were only 300 pilots altogether. Now, without counting the number killed and wounded, there are 500 pilots in the navy and 500 in the army and when I left France we were forming our twenty-third aviator squadron for the army. There are forty pilots in each squadron and each pilot has three machines and three mechanics to a machine. James C. Porte is now the commander of the North Sea squadron of aeroplanes."

EASTERN ELEVENS HAVE SOME HARD BATTLES TODAY

New York, Oct. 23.—Today is considered the turning point of the football season. Virtually all of the leading elevens in the eastern section of the country were matched against opponents expected to make them prove their metal. Upsets are expected when the scores come in.

The Harvard-Cornell game at Cambridge is of first importance in the estimation of football men, as the Ithaca eleven is one of the best ever turned out. The annual Princeton-Dartmouth game at Princeton ranks as second in importance. The Washington and Jefferson team did not expect to repeat its victory of last year over Yale, but hoped to give the Blue eleven a hard battle at New Haven. Other games in east were:

Pittsburgh vs. Pennsylvania at Philadelphia.
Syracuse vs. Brown at Providence.
Georgetown vs. the Army at West Point.
Virginia Polytechnic vs. Navy at Annapolis.
Wesleyan vs. Amherst at Amherst.
Columbia vs. St. Lawrence at New York.
Carlisle vs. Bucknell at Carlisle.
Colgate vs. Rensselaer at Hamilton.
West Virginia vs. Wesleyan vs. Penn State at State College.
Trinity vs. Williams at Williamsburg.
Fordham vs. Holy Cross at New York.

Test, R. H. B.

The New Boston Tigers will have the above lineup Sunday when they meet Ironton's best team.

Gridiron sport lovers will miss the best game of the season Sunday if they do not go out to Millbrook park and see the New Boston Tigers clash with the best football eleven in Ironton. The pick of players from the Lombard and Midway teams have been rounded into one strong team. Ex-high school and college players form the backbone of both elevens. The Tigers have the best team in this part of the country and are ready to defend their claim at any time.

Starck played quarter-back for a strong Huntington eleven last year. James Lynn and Robert Padan are ex-Portsmouth high school stars. Jim Culver, full back, had experience on the famous Canton, O., eleven, a team that is known all over the state. Matthews is an ex-college player. Fredlocke played with Western Maryland Preparatory school several years. Test is an ex-high school player and was a mainstay on the 1914 P. H. S. eleven. He would be one of the stars of the P. H. S. team this season, but is out of the game on account of playing professional baseball.

The game will be called at 2:30.

Game Begins 2:30

The P. H. S.-Jackson football game scheduled for Millbrook park this afternoon will be called promptly at 2:30. Prof. Robert Meeks after hard work, succeeded in having the Jackson lads come in automobiles.

INVITED TO BIG GAME

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 21.—Charleston, Ironton, Portsmouth, Ashland and Gallipolis high schools and those of the smaller towns in the tri-state section, have been asked to send their football squads to see the Marshall, West Virginia football game here Nov. 6th, as the guests of the two schools.

SCHEDULE FOR SUNDAY

The Sunday schedule for local football teams is as follows:
New Boston Tigers vs. Ironton at Millbrook.
Shamrock vs. Lombard at Ironton.
New Boston Arrows vs. Rags at Ironton.
Muldoon vs. Chillicothe, at Chillicothe.
The schedule gives three local teams games with Ironton teams.

PRINCETON PROFESSOR SAYS FISH WILL SOME DAY BE OUR BEST ILLUMINATION

Had Regular Lineup

McDermott, O., Oct. 22.
Sporting Editor Times:

Replying to an article that appeared in Wednesday's Daily Times, signed by an "interested spectator," will say that this particular "interested spectator" certainly does make some very strong assertions relative to the truth and everything in general.

Now, in regard to our former article, we feel that we stated the truth when we made the statement that we had our regular line-up with the exception of Meyers and Monk, of the Portsmouth Spiders. Long & Crabtree are regular members of our team and Mr. Long has been playing with us about all season. He is a resident of our township and is not from Lucasville, as stated by the interested spectator. However, he did play with the Lucasville team early in the season. Crabtree has been playing on our team about two months, and we consider him one of our regular players, and I am at a loss to understand why these two players have anything to do with reference to the merits of the two teams.

Now, in conclusion, we trust that this will bring to a close these series of articles, and offer the following suggestions to the "interested spectator":

If he is really a royal fair sport, we think that he should open up his heart and donate his team with a real ball diamond.

SPORT SALAD

Pitcher Greer, of the Terra Haute team, has been sold to the Boston Nationals.

It looks like the Chicago Cubs will train next season at Shreveport, La.

Frank Moran has challenged Jesse Willard. Looks like these two ring gladiators will soon swap punches in the ring.

The internal troubles of the Cincinnati Club between the "Eisenmanns and Hornmanns" have reached an acute stage, and unless the latter comes to bat with something like $200,000 within a short time, the former will be in a position to name his successor as president of the company that operates the Reds.

A definite movement is on foot looking toward a peace settlement between organized baseball and the Federal League, says the New York Evening World. The plan is expected to materialize before the winter meetings of the old leagues.

Here is the inside dope: The Chicago National League Club will be sold during the winter, but no negotiations are in progress at present.

It is said that the Phillies will start out next season without a single change in its 1915 lineup.

NEW BOSTON MAY ENJOIN USE OF THE RESERVOIR

FEAR OTHER THREE WALLS ARE NOT SAFE AND MAY ENDANGER THE RESIDENTS

Firmly of the opinion that unless the other three walls of the reservoir at the new water works are reinforced, after the wall that recently gave way and permitted 7,000,000 gallons of water to rush down the hillside into Millbrook, one of them is likely to give way at any time without warning and endanger the lives of 150 people living at the foot of the hill just below the reservoir, Mayor Davis of New Boston, at a meeting of the village council Friday evening called council's attention to this important matter. He laid great stress on the danger he said that residents in the vicinity of the reservoir are facing. Mayor Davis told members of council that he had personally inspected the reservoir and that inasmuch as he understood its condition he would ask council to provide protection and safety for residents living near it.

Solicitor Skelton informed council that these residents could ask for a restraining order enjoining the city from using the reservoir until it was an assured fact that it was in an absolutely safe condition.

This caused a long discussion on the matter and resulted in a motion being passed to have Solicitor Skelton take it up with the council of this city and report at the next meeting of the village council.

"I have inspected the reservoir carefully and have found it weak in many places," Mayor Davis told council members last night. "I am in favor of having state officials thoroughly inspect the reservoir and pronounce it perfectly safe before another drop of water is turned into it. There is no question but what the reservoir break is a serious matter, especially to those families living at the foot of the hill just below it. They are entitled to protection and we should see that they get it," Mayor Davis stated to the village council last night.

Mayor Davis says that the reservoir seeps on all sides when water is in it which, according to his opinion indicates that the walls are weak. "There is no question but what state authorities should inspect the reservoir and put their O. K. on it before it is placed in service again."

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—A national boulevard, traversing the southern states and having its western terminal at San Diego, California, was to be advocated by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, who continued sessions of their convention here today. The Jefferson Davis Highway is the proposed name of the road.

The convention, after hearing a report from Mrs. L. E. Williams, of Anchorage, Kentucky, on the bill before congress, petitioning that the civil war be known as the "War between the states," took the stand that the word "Civil" was incorrectly applied to a conflict for a separate government.

PURSuing HUSBAND RELENTS: GIVES UP BRIDE

Banker's Son Goes Home With Parents; Ringless Bride Is On Way To Detroit

Emotional appeals of his mother and persuasive powers of his father triumphed over the little girl Goddess of Love and caused Frank Hyde, the young son of Banker U. G. Hyde, of Buchanan, Va., to forsake his runaway bride of a week here Friday evening and return home with his parents on a midnight train.

The bride, Mrs. Marie Engleby Hyde, totally indifferent to the stand taken by her husband, remained close to her room at the Brunswick hotel and left on the 4 o'clock N. & W. train for Cincinnati, bound for her original destination, Detroit, Mich., where she claimed to have friends.

Though he had previously remarked to the police officials that he would not go so far as to resort to any force, Banker Hyde succeeded in inducing his son's bride to give up two very valuable diamond rings, including her wedding ring, claiming it was his money largely that was used in purchasing them.

When Mr. and Mrs. Hyde arrived at police headquarters they were at once ushered into Chief B. E. Allen's private office and found their new daughter-in-law seated there. No greetings were exchanged by them. Mr. and Mrs. Hyde immediately instructing their steps from the room, saying they wanted to see the son. The bride was asked into an adjoining room. She was able to hear practically everything that was said

Harry Strong, who has been business agent of the Building Trades Council for the past few years, stated Saturday that the council dissolved permanently two weeks ago. He added he was not at liberty to state the causes leading to the dissolution.

The members of the Council have been meeting every Wednesday evening since that time, winding up the business affairs of the organization.

The Building Trades Council was formed in 1912, seven crafts identified with the building industry being represented. It was an organization independent of Central Labor Council.

Recently, suit to dissolve the Building Trades Council was filed in common pleas court by the master plumbers of the city, who also wanted a permanent injunction restraining its members from interfering with their business. Judge Tabbell of Georgetown, presiding at the hearing and decided all points at issue in favor of the Council.

It is the second time in recent years at a Building Trades Council in this city has voluntarily dissolved. A similar organization was formed in 1910, but it disbanded a little over a year later only to organize again the following year.

In discussing Great Britain's offer to cede the island of Cyprus to Greece, the newspaper Patris, a supporter of the Venizelos party says that the refusal of Premier Zaimis is not of a definite nature, and expresses the belief that the powers of the quadruple entente again will approach the Greek government. The Nea Hellas says that it is evident the Greek government will not accept and has decided to remain absolutely neutral.

Thief Raids Coop; Chickens Taken

Between twenty-five and thirty chickens, valued at $15, were stolen from an outside coop at J. W. Stout's store, corner of Eleventh and Gay streets, Friday night. The discovery was made early Saturday morning and at once reported to the police, although there was absolutely no clue left to the guilty parties. Mr. Stout had just filled up the coop with a week-end supply, as is his custom Friday nights. The stepple of one of the four compartments of the coop was pulled out and the doors of two others were pried up, while the fourth proved too much for the thieves, they finding it impossible to force the Yale lock on its door.

Left to right: Gonzales, Obregon and Carranza.

According to the best Mexican opinion, recognition by the United States and other powers of General Carranza has not ended that gentleman's troubles. Mexico now has a debt of a billion dollars, and internal conditions are so acute that permanent peace is considered impossible.
